Taxpayers who elect to pay these taxes by EFT must furnish a written notice to TTB when they elect to use, or discontinue use of, EFT. Abstract: Distilled spirits, industrial alcohol, beer and wine are taxed when imported into the United States, but the Federal excise taxes collected on these commodities brought into the United States from Puerto Rico and the U.S. Virgin Islands are largely returned to their respective governments. In addition, small producers can transfer their tax credit to bonded warehouses, which store their wine and ship it on their instructions. Under TTB regulations, the transferee uses information provided by the small producer to take the appropriate credit on behalf of the small producer, and the producer will use the information to monitor its own tax payments to ensure it does not exceed the authorized annual credit. The information is used by taxpayers in preparing their returns and by TTB to verify tax computation.
