

Section 208.31 of the Board's regulations (12 CFR 208.31) governs registration of transfer agents for state member banks, and section 225.4(d) (12 CFR 225.4(d)) governs registration of transfer agents for bank holding companies and certain nondepository trust company subsidiaries of BHCs that act as a transfer agent. The Board is also the ARA for SLHCs seeking to act as transfer agent. Before any of these entities may perform any transfer agent function for a qualifying security, it must register on Form TA-1 with the Board and its registration must become effective.

Section 341.3 of FDIC's regulations (12 CFR part 341) governs registration of transfer agents for state nonmember banks and state non-member savings associations, and subsidiaries of such institutions. Before an insured state nonmember bank or a state savings association and any subsidiary of such institution may perform any transfer agent function for a qualifying security, it must register on Form TA-1 with the FDIC and its registration must become effective.

Section 9.20 of the OCC's regulations (12 CFR 9.20) governs registration of transfer agents. Section 9.20(b) provides that SEC rules pursuant to Section 17A of the Act, prescribing operational and reporting requirements for transfer agents, apply to the domestic activities of registered national bank transfer agents. Before a national bank, Federal savings bank, or a bank operating under the Code of Law for the District of Columbia, or a subsidiary of any such bank, may perform any transfer agent function for a qualifying security, it must register on Form TA-1 with the OCC and its registration must become effective.
