SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

(1) PBGC Is Proposing To Add an Additional Routine Use to Its Prefatory Statement of General Routine Uses

PBGC is proposing to add an additional routine use to its Prefatory Statement of General Routine Uses. PBGC recently received correspondence from the Office of Management and Budget (OMB) requesting that all agencies add an additional routine use to their system of records notices which allows them to provide information in their system of records to other federal agencies that may reasonably be needed to respond to a suspected or confirmed breach. This proposed routine use reflects the expanded scope of harms resulting from a breach and allows the government to more effectively respond to suspected or confirmed breaches.

General Routine Use 14 will read: "Disclosure to Another Federal Agency or Federal Entity. To another Federal agency or Federal entity, when information from this system of records is reasonably necessary to assist the recipient agency or entity in (1) responding to a suspected or confirmed breach or (2) preventing, minimizing, or remedying the risk of harm to individuals, the agency (including its information systems, programs, and operations), the Federal Government, or national security."

(2) PBGC Is Proposing To Add an Additional Routine Use to PBGC-3, Employee Payroll, Leave, and Attendance Records

PBGC's review of its system of records notices revealed that PBGC occasionally receives data calls from the Office of Personnel Management (OPM) requesting records from PBGC-3. In order to permit PBGC to provide the relevant records to OPM, PBGC is proposing to add a new routine use to PBGC-3.

Routine Use 4 will read: "Information from this system of records may be disclosed to the Office of Personnel Management pursuant to that agency's responsibility for the evaluation and oversight of Federal personnel management."

(3) PBGC Is Proposing To Add an Additional Routine Use to PBGC-19, Office of General Counsel Case Management System

PBGC is proposing to add an additional routine use to PBGC-19. PBGC recently received correspondence from the Office of Government Information Services (OGIS) requesting that PBGC add an OGIS routine use to its Freedom of Information Act (FOIA)/ Privacy Act (PA) system of records notice. PBGC uses FOIAonline (<https://foiaonline.regulations.gov/>) to process all of its FOIA and PA requests. FOIAonline is an Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) system and is covered by EPA-9. Therefore, PBGC does not have its own system of records dedicated solely to FOIA and PA records. PBGC does however, store and maintain its FOIA and PA administrative appeals and responses in PBGC-19. Accordingly, PBGC proposes to add an additional routine use to PBGC-19, which will enable OGIS to more effectively carry out its statutory mission and will also provide requesters with easier access to the dispute resolution process.

Routine Use 10 will read: "A record from this system of records may be disclosed to the National Archives and Records Administration, Office of Government Information Services (OGIS), to the extent necessary to fulfill its responsibilities in 5 U.S.C. 552(h), to review administrative agency policies, procedures and compliance with the Freedom of Information Act, and to facilitate OGIS' offering of mediation services to resolve disputes between persons making FOIA requests and administrative agencies."

(4) PBGC Is Proposing To Remove a Routine Use From PBGC-22, Telework and Alternative Worksite Records

In the process of reviewing its system of records notices, PBGC determined that Routine Use 2 in PBGC-22 is unnecessary. Routine 2 use states: "A record from this system may be disclosed to medical professionals to obtain information about an employee's medical background necessary to grant or deny approval of medical telework." However, this system of records does not contain records pertaining to medical telework. Medical telework records are only contained in PBGC-21 and therefore, the routine use is unnecessary.

(5) PBGC Is Proposing To Establish a New System of Records, PBGC-24, Participant Debt Collection

In the process of reviewing its system of records notices, PBGC determined that two systems at PBGC perform debt collection activities. PBGC determined that it was necessary to publish an additional system of records notice to describe the participant debt collection activities performed by PBGC's Office of Benefits Administration in addition to PBGC's current debt collection system of records, PBGC-13, which covers the debt collection activities performed by PBGC's Financial Operations Department.

(6) PBGC Is Proposing Various Technical and Clarifying Changes to Eighteen Existing Systems of Records

In the process of reviewing its system of records notices, PBGC determined it was necessary to make various technical and clarifying changes to all eighteen of its existing systems of records notices. These amendments, which are non-substantive, will make the systems of records notices more accurate and easier to understand, individually, and when read together.

Pursuant to 5 U.S.C. 552a(e)(11), interested persons are invited to submit written comments on the proposal of these systems of records. A report on the proposed systems has been sent to Congress and the Office of Management and Budget for their evaluation.

For the convenience of the public, PBGC's Prefatory Statement of General Routine Uses, the amended systems of records, and the new system of records are published in full below with changes italicized.

Issued in Washington, DC this 17th day of August, 2016.

W. Thomas Reeder,

Director, Pension Benefit Guaranty Corporation.

G5. Routine Use—Disclosure to DOJ in Litigation: When PBGC, an employee of PBGC in his or her official capacity, or an employee of PBGC in his or her individual capacity whom PBGC (or DOJ) has agreed to represent is a party to a proceeding before a court or other adjudicative body, or the United States or any other federal agency is a party and PBGC determines that it has an interest in the proceeding, a record from this system of records may be disclosed to DOJ if PBGC is consulting with DOJ regarding the proceeding or has decided that DOJ will represent PBGC, or its interest, in the proceeding and PBGC determines that the record is relevant to the proceeding and that the use is compatible with the purpose for which PBGC collected the information.

G6. Routine Use—Disclosure to the Office of Management and Budget (OMB): A record from this system of records may be disclosed to OMB in connection with the review of private relief legislation as set forth in OMB Circular No. A-19 at any stage of the legislative coordination and clearance process as set forth in that Circular.

G9. Routine Use—Disclosure in Response to a Breach: A record from this system of records may be disclosed to appropriate agencies, entities, and persons when (1) PBGC suspects or has confirmed that there has been a breach of the system of records; (2) PBGC has determined that as a result of the suspected or confirmed breach there is a risk of harm to individuals, the agency (including its information systems, programs and operations), the Federal Government, or national security; and (3) the disclosure made to such agencies, entities, and persons is reasonably necessary to assist in connection with PBGC's efforts to respond to the suspected or confirmed breach or to prevent, minimize, or remedy such harm.

G10. Routine Use—Contractors, Experts, and Consultants: To contractors, experts, consultants, and the agents thereof, and others performing or working on a contract, service, cooperative agreement, or other assignment for PBGC when necessary to accomplish an agency function. Individuals provided information under this routine use are subject to the same Privacy Act requirements and limitations on disclosure as are applicable to PBGC employees.

G11. Routine Use—Records Management: To the National Archives and Records Administration or to the General Services Administration for records management inspections conducted under 44 U.S.C. 2904 and 2906.

G12. Routine Use—Gathering Information: To any source from which information is requested in the course of processing a grievance, investigation, arbitration, or other litigation, to the extent necessary to identify the individual, inform the source of the purpose(s) of the request, and identify the type of information requested.

G13. Routine Use—Disclosure to a Federal Agency: To disclose information to a Federal agency, in response to its request, in connection with hiring or retaining an employee, issuing a security clearance, conducting a security or suitability investigation of an individual, or classifying jobs, to the extent that the information is relevant and necessary to the requesting agency's decision on the matter.

G14. Routine Use—Disclosure to Another Federal Agency or Federal Entity in Response to a Breach: To another Federal agency or Federal entity, when information from this system of records is reasonably necessary to assist the recipient agency or entity in (1) responding to a suspected or confirmed breach or (2) preventing, minimizing, or remedying the risk of harm to individuals, the agency (including its information systems, programs, and operations), the Federal Government, or national security.
