Also, pursuant to Title V of the North American Free Trade Agreement Implementation Act (P.L. 103-182) concerning transitional adjustment assistance hereinafter called (NAFTA-TAA) and in accordance with Section 250(a) Subchapter D, Chapter 2, Title II, of the Trade Act as amended, the Department of Labor presents summaries of determinations regarding eligibility to apply for NAFTA-TAA issued during the month of April, 1996.

In order for an affirmative determination to be made and a certification of eligibility to apply for NAFTA-TAA the following group eligibility requirements of Section 250 of the Trade Act must be met:

(1) that a significant number or proportion of the workers in the workers; firm, or an appropriate subdivision thereof, (including workers in any agricultural firm or appropriate subdivision thereof) have become totally or partially separated from employment and either—

(2) that sales or production, or both, of such firm or subdivision have decreased absolutely,

(3) that imports from Mexico or Canada of articles like or directly competitive with articles produced by such firm or subdivision have increased, and that the increases in imports contributed importantly to such workers' separations or threat of separation and to the decline in sales or production of such firm or subdivision; or

(4) that there has been a shift in production by such workers' firm or subdivision to Mexico or Canada of articles like or directly competitive with articles which are produced by the firm or subdivision.

Negative Determinations NAFTA-TAA

In each of the following cases the investigation revealed that criteria (3) and (4) were not met. Imports from Canada or Mexico did not contribute importantly to workers' separations. There was no shift in production from the subject firm to Canada or Mexico during the relevant period.

[TA-W-31, 500 & 500B]Andover Togs, Incorporated, South Boston, Virginia and New York, New York; Amended Certification Regarding Eligibility To Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance

In accordance with Section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974 (19 U.S.C. 2273) the Department of Labor issued a Certification of Eligibility to Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance on October 18, 1995, applicable to all workers of Andover Togs, Incorporated located in South Boston, Virginia. The notice was published in the Federal Register on November 9, 1995 (60 FR 56619).

At the request of petitioners, the Department reviewed the certification for workers of the subject firm. New information provided by the company shows that worker separations have occurred at the subject firms' New York City location. The workers provide administrative and support services for the Andover Togs children's apparel production facilities.

The intent of the Department's certification is to include all workers of the subject firm who were adversely affected by increased imports of apparel. Accordingly, the Department is amending the certification to cover the workers of Andover Togs, Incorporated, New York, New York.

The amended notice applicable to TA-W-31,500 is hereby issued as follows:

All workers of Andover Togs, Incorporated, South Boston, Virginia (TA-W-31,500), and New York, New York (TA-W-31,500B) engaged in employment related to the production of children's apparel who became totally or partially separated from employment on or after September 15, 1994 are eligible to apply for adjustment assistance under Section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974.

Signed at Washington, D.C. this 1st day of May 1996.

Russell T. Kile,

Acting Program Manager, Policy and Reemployment Services, Office of Trade Adjustment Assistance.

[TA-W-31,844]The Ertl Company, Dyersville, Iowa, Including Leased Workers of Employee Dynamics Inc., Dubuque, Iowa; Amended Certification Regarding Eligibility To Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance

In accordance with Section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974 (19 U.S.C. 2273) the Department of Labor issued a Certification of Eligibility to Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance on February 26, 1996, applicable to all workers at The Ertl Company located in Dyersville, Iowa. The notice was published in the Federal Register on March 19, 1996 (61 FR 11224).

At the request of petitioners, the Department reviewed the certification for workers of the subject firm. Based on new findings, the Department is amending the certification to include leased workers from Employee Dynamics Inc., Dubuque, Iowa engaged in the production of toy products for the subject firm.

The intent of the Department's certification is to include all workers of The Ertl Company adversely affected by imports.

The amended notice applicable to TA-W-31,844 is hereby issued as follows:

All workers of the Ertl Company, Dyersville, Iowa, and workers of Employee Dynamics Inc., Dubuque, Iowa, engaged in the production of toy products for The Ertl Company, who became totally or partially separated from employment on or after January 12, 1995 are eligible to apply for adjustment assistance under Section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974.

Signed at Washington, D.C. this 1st day of May 1996.

[TA-W-29,743 & 743G]IBM Corporation, Enterprise Systems, Large Scale Computing Systems Division and its Successors, Poughkeepsie, New York and Integrated Systems Solutions Corporation (ISSC), Division #07 (Formerly Division #26), Wappingers Falls, New York; Amended Certification Regarding Eligibility To Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance

On March 23, 1995, the Department of Labor issued a Notice of Revised Determination on Reconsideration, applicable to all workers at IBM Corporation, Poughkeepsie, New York. The notice was published in the Federal Register on April 5, 1995 (60 FR 17371). The certification was subsequently amended to include other locations and divisions of the subject firm. The amended notices were published in the Federal Register on June 29, 1995 (60 FR 33850), and December 15, 1995 (60 FR 64454).

At the request of the State Agency, the Department reviewed the certification for workers of the subject firm. New findings show that workers of the Wappingers Falls, New York location of Integrated Systems Solutions Corporation (ISSC), Division #07 (formerly Division #26), provided support services to IBM Corporation, Enterprise Systems, Large Scale Computing Systems Division. ISSC is a separate corporate entity wholly owned by IBM.

The intent of the Department's certification is to include all workers of the subject firm who are adversely affected by increased imports.

Accordingly, the Department is again amending the certification to include the workers of ISSC, Division #07 (formerly Division #26), who provided support services to IBM.

The amended notice applicable to TA-W-29,743 is hereby issued as follows:

All workers of Enterprise Systems, Large Scale Computing Systems Division, and its successors, of IBM Corporation located in Poughkeepsie, New York (TA-W-29,743), and workers of Integrated Systems Solutions Corporation (ISSC), Division #07 (formerly Division #26), Wappingers Falls, New York providing support services to IBM Corporation, the Enterprise Systems, Large Scale Computing Systems Division, and its successors who became totally or partially separated from employment on or after March 23, 1993, are eligible to apply for adjustment assistance under Section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974.

Signed at Washington, D.C. this 29th day of April 1996.
