Fruit of the Loom Albemarle Spinning Mills, Albemarle, North Carolina; Notice of Revised Determination on Reopening

On January 24, 1996, the Department issued a Negative Determination Regarding Eligibility to Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance, applicable to all workers of Fruit of the Loom, Albemarle Spinning Mills, located in Albemarle, North Carolina. The notice was published in the Federal Register on February 6, 1996 (FR 61 4486).

Based on new information received from petitioners, the Department, on its own motion, reviewed the findings of the investigation. New findings show that the yarn and fabric produced by workers of the subject firm supported production of t-shirts, briefs and fleecewear at other Fruit of the Loom production facilities. TAA certifications have been issued for workers of Fruit of the Loom production facilities in various States.

Conclusion

After careful review of the additional facts obtained on reopening, I conclude that increased imports of articles like or directly competitive with yarn and textiles contributed importantly to the declines in sales or production and to the total or partial separation of workers of Fruit of the Loom, Albemarle Spinning Mills, Albemarle, North Carolina. In accordance with the provisions of the Act, I make the following certification:

"All workers of Fruit of the Loom, Albemarle Spinning Mills, Albemarle, North Carolina who became totally or partially separated from employment on or after November 9, 1994 are eligible to apply for adjustment assistance under Section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974."

Signed at Washington, D.C. this 11th day of June 1996.
