Federal Energy Regulatory Commission

[Docket No. CP96-143-000]

Algonquin Gas Transmission Company; Notice of Application

January 26, 1996.

Take notice that on January 18, 1996, Algonquin Gas Transmission Company (Algonquin), 1284 Soldiers Field Road, Boston, Massachusetts 02135, filed in Docket No. CP96-143-000 an application pursuant to Section 7 (b) and (c) of the Natural Gas Act for authorization to abandon and remove facilities being replaced and to utilize temporary workspace associated with, all as more fully set forth in the application on file with the Commission and open to public inspection.

Any person desiring to be heard or to make any protest with reference to said application should on or before February 15, 1996, file with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, Washington, D.C. 20426, a motion to intervene or a protest in accordance with the requirements of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure (18 CFR 385.214 or 385.211) and the Regulations under the Natural Gas Act (18 CFR 157.10). All protests filed with the Commission will be considered by it in determining the appropriate action to be taken but will not serve to make the protestants parties to the proceeding. Any person wishing to become a party to a proceeding or to participate as a party in any hearing therein must file a motion to intervene in accordance with the Commission's Rules.

Take further notice that, pursuant to the authority contained in and subject to the jurisdiction conferred upon the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission by Sections 7 and 15 of the Natural Gas Act and the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure, a hearing will be held without further notice before the Commission or its designee on this application if no motion to intervene is filed within the time required herein, if the Commission on its own review of the matter finds that a grant of the certificate is required by the public convenience and necessity. If a motion for leave to intervene is timely filed, or if the Commission on its own motion believes that a formal hearing is required, further notice of such hearing will be duly given.

Under the procedure herein provided for, unless otherwise advised, it will be unnecessary for Algonquin to appear or be represented at the hearing.

Lois D. Cashell,

Secretary.

[Docket No. GP94-2-005]

Columbia Gas Transmission Corporation; Notice of Refund Report

January 26, 1996.

Take notice that on January 16, 1996, Columbia Gas Transmission Corporation (Columbia) tendered for filing with the Commission a Refund Report stating that on November 28, 1995, Columbia made refunds and billings resulting in a net refund of $59,804,183.03 to certain customers, as explained below. These refunds were implemented in accordance with Article XV, Section E of the April 17, 1995 Settlement approved by the Commission in Docket No. GP94-2, et al. on June 15, 1995.

Columbia states that each customer receiving a refund or invoice was notified by a letter containing detailed schedules of each customer's refund and billing amounts by issue. Any customer which received a Docket No. RP90-108 refund or Docket No. RP80-146 Storage

Gas Lost refund also received schedules showing the computation of the principal and interest portions of the refund.

In accordance with Article XV, Section C(3) of the Settlement, customers which did not execute a written agreement by the Effective Date did not receive refunds on November 28, 1995. Those customers, identified in Schedule 2 of the subject report, received a detail of the refunds due and were notified that the refunds could not be issued until a written waiver agreement is executed.

Schedule 3 of the subject report reflects an adjustment to the amounts that were billed for Contract Rejection Costs to appropriately reflect the annualization of short term contracts. These adjustments will be reflected on the January 1996 invoices.

Any person desiring to protest Columbia's refund report should file a protest with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 888 First Street, NE., Washington, DC 20426, in accordance with 18 CFR 385.211 of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure. All such protests should be filed on or before February 2, 1996. Protests will be considered by the Commission in determining the appropriate action to be taken, but will not serve to make protestants parties to the proceeding. Copies of this filing are on file with the Commission and are available for public inspection.

Lois D. Cashell,

Secretary.
