POLICY JUSTIFICATIONEgypt - Gulfstream IV-SP Aircraft

The Government of Egypt has requested the purchase of two Gulfstream IV-SP aircraft, installation of avionics/electronics equipment, two spare engines, special test and support equipment, spare and repair parts, the modification/upgrade of support equipment in-country, personnel training and training equipment, publications and technical data, maintenance of repairable material, U.S. Government and contractor engineering and logistics services, aircraft ferry services, and other related elements of program support. The estimated cost is $80 million ($10 million from Egyptian National Funds for VIP package and $70 million from foreign military financing (FMF) for the basic Gulfstream aircraft program).

This sale will contribute to the foreign policy and national security of the United States by helping to improve the security of a friendly country which has been and continues to be an important force for political stability and economic progress in the Middle East.

Egypt will use these aircraft to augment and enhance its existing airlift capability, including the movement of its National Command Authority. Egypt currently operates four Gulfstream aircraft and will have no difficulty absorbing these additional aircraft.

The sale of this equipment and support will not affect the basic military balance in the region.

The prime contractor will be the Gulfstream Aerospace Corporation, Savannah, Georgia. There are no offset agreements proposed to be entered into in connection with this potential sale.

Implementation of this sale will not require the assignment of any additional U.S. Government personnel to Egypt; however, it is estimated that two contractor representatives will be required in-country following delivery and initial operations of the new aircraft.

There will be no adverse impact on U.S. defense readiness as a result of this sale.
