Notice Pursuant to the National Cooperative Research and Production Act of 1993; PNGV Electrochemical Energy Storage Technical Team

Notice is hereby given that, on October 30, 1996, pursuant to Section 6(a) of the National Cooperative Research and Production Act of 1993, 15 U.S.C. § 4301 et seq. ("the Act"), General Motors Corporation filed notifications simultaneously with the Attorney General and the Federal Trade Commission disclosing (1) the identities of the parties to and (2) the nature and objectives of a research and development venture. The notifications were filed for the purpose of invoking the Act's provisions limiting the recovery of antitrust plaintiffs to actual damages under the specified circumstances. Pursuant to Section 6(b) of the Act, the identities of the parties are General Motors Corporation, Detroit, MI; Chrysler Corporation, Auburn Hills,

MI; and Ford Motor Company, Dearborn, MI.

The parties have established an Electrochemical Energy Storage Technical Team to conduct joint research aimed at developing and demonstrating the viability of lightweight, compact, high power energy storage devices, capable of storing and releasing energy at high power levels at very high levels of efficiency in automotive applications. The research and development activities of this group involve efforts to reduce the weight and cost of high power electrochemical batteries while improving their power, performance, efficiency, durability and cycle life as well as pursuing material advancements which will be required to improve the specific energy and reduce the cost of ultra capacitors, while not adversely affecting their high power capability, efficiency or cycle life. The results of this effort will support the Partnership for a New Generation of Vehicles (PNGV) and allow each party to better serve its customers around the world. PNGV is the joint effort of the Federal Government and the U.S. auto industry to develop affordable, fuel-efficient, low-emission automobiles that meet today's performance standards. To meet these objectives, the parties will collect, exchange and analyze research information, interact with government, auto industry and other entities interested in this area and perform other acts allowed by the Act that would advance these goals.
