

system for all services under Rate Schedules IT and MCS and under a new rate schedule, Rate Schedule MBA. CNG proposes to provide firm transportation and storage service at market based prices under Rate Schedule MBA, in conjunction with Rate Schedules FT, GSS, GSS-II, and OSS for new contracts under those rate schedules with a primary term of less than five years (i.e., all new contracts for firm services under these rate schedules with a term of less than five years and all extensions or roll-overs of existing contracts with a term of less than five years). Thus, CNG states that it does not propose to implement market based rates for the primary term of existing long-term agreements. CNG does propose to implement market based prices for all short-term services (i.e., short-term firm transportation service, and services under Rate Schedules IT and MCS) immediately upon Commission approval.

CNG states that copies of the filing have been served upon its affected customers and interested State Commissions.

Any person desiring to be heard or to protest this filing should file a motion to intervene or protest with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 888 First Street, N.E., Washington, DC 20426, in accordance with Sections 385.214 and 385.211 of the Commission's rules and regulations. All such motions or protests must be filed in accordance with Section 154.210 of the Commission's Regulations. Protests will be considered by the Commission in determining the appropriate action to be taken, but will not serve to make protestants parties to the proceeding. Any person wishing to become a party must file a motion to intervene. Copies of this filing are on file with the Commission and are available for public inspection in the Public Reference Room.

Columbia Gas Transmission Corporation; Notice of Compliance Filing

July 3, 1997.

Take notice that on June 30, 1997, Columbia Gas Transmission Corporation

(Columbia) tendered for filing to become part of its FERC Gas Tariff, Second Revised Volume No. 1, the following change effective August 1, 1997:

Third Revised Sheet No. 456

Columbia states that this filing is being made to comply with the Letter Order of the Commission dated June 11, 1997, in which the Commission directed Columbia to file a separate tariff sheet at least 30 days prior to August 1, 1997, to incorporate GISB Standard 4.3.6 by reference. Columbia is also correcting a typographical error in the listing of the GISB Standards incorporated by reference in Sheet No. 456 to reflect accurately that GISB Standard 4.3.14, Version 1.0, will be complied with. This standard was incorrectly referred to as "4.3.4".

Any person desiring to protest said filing should file a protest with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 888 First Street, N.E., Washington, D.C. 20426, in accordance with Section 385.211 of the Commission's Rules and Regulations. All such protests must be filed as provided in Section 154.210 of the Commission's Regulations. Protests will be considered by the Commission in determining the appropriate action to be taken, but will not serve to make protestants parties to the proceeding. Copies of this filing are on file with the Commission and are available for public inspection in the Public Reference Room.

Keystone Energy Services, Inc.; Notice of Issuance of Order

July 7, 1997.

Keystone Energy Services, Inc. (Keystone) submitted for filing with the Commission a rate schedule under which Keystone will engage in wholesale electric power and energy transactions as a marketer. Keystone also requested waiver of various Commission regulations. In particular, Keystone requested that the Commission grant blanket approval under 18 CFR part 34 of all future issuances of securities and assumptions of liability by Keystone.

On June 26, 1997, pursuant to delegated authority, the Director, Division of Applications, Office of Electric Power Regulation, granted requests for blanket approval under Part 34, subject to the following:

Within thirty days of the date of the order, any person desiring to be heard or to protest the blanket approval of issuances of securities or assumptions of liability by Keystone should file a motion to intervene or protest with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 888 First Street, N.E., Washington, D.C. 20426, in accordance with Rules 211 and 214 of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure (18 CFR 385.211 and 385.214).

Absent a request for hearing within this period, Keystone is authorized to issue securities and assume obligations or liabilities as a guarantor, endorser, surety, or otherwise in respect of any security of another person; provided that such issuance or assumption is for some lawful object within the corporate purposes of the applicant, and compatible with the public interest, and is reasonably necessary or appropriate for such purposes.

The Commission reserves the right to require a further showing that neither public nor private interests will be adversely affected by continued approval of Keystone's issuances of securities or assumptions of liability.

Notice is hereby given that the deadline for filing motions to intervene
