

the language/resource of choice among widely-divergent users that range from the Social Security Administration to the Defense Intelligence Agency and from America's Job Bank to the Educational Testing Service (ETS).

Creating a common ground of understanding on which public and private workforce initiatives can work together, O*NET becomes a communication link to help integrate learning, training and work. It serves to emphasize the reality that no one effort, public or private, can capture all aspects or target all the dimensions involved in the changing workplace. Government's participation helps insure objectivity and fairness in data collection, but government alone cannot build the extensive occupational information network today's economy demands. Working with the private sector, O*NET will provide the foundation upon which others can build as they assist career counseling, employment and job-training activities.

Offering O*NET products now is a way to encourage the combined and extended efforts needed to reach full O*NET development. Enhancements made by entities obtaining O*NET 98 Beta and O*NET 98 are expected to produce value-added products that will, for example: (1) Develop resumes, job orders, and descriptions of personnel positions; (2) streamline and improve the accuracy of vocational counseling; (3) fine-tune assessment measures to benchmark worker skills and requirements; (4) evaluate and forecast human resource requirements; (5) restructure organizational and staff development; (6) benchmark performance appraisals; (7) align educational and job training curricula with current workplace content; (8) create skills-match profiles; (9) explore career options that capitalize on prior experience; (10) make better informed job placement decisions; and (11) reduce recruitment costs of workers at all levels.

O*NET Products will be distributed through ETA's grantees developing O*NET. Specific information on the distribution centers will be available in the near future. O*NET Beta will be made available to software developers who can develop value-added products that will expand O*NET's immediate usability. Those who participate in this phase of O*NET development will be considered a responsible part of the O*NET effort to achieve a fully operational, solidly researched and user-responsive tool that enhances the employment potential of all Americans.

Dated at Washington, DC, this 11th day of August 1997.

NATIONAL ARCHIVES AND RECORDS ADMINISTRATION

Agency Information Collection Activities: Proposed Collection; Comment Request

AGENCY: National Archives and Records Administration (NARA).

ACTION: Notice.

SUMMARY: NARA is giving public notice that the agency proposes to request extension of a currently approved information collection used when a request involves a record or information that may be from military records that were lost in a fire on July 12, 1973, at the National Personnel Records Center (NPRC), so that NPRC can search alternative sources to reconstruct the requested information. The public is invited to comment on the proposed information collection pursuant to the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995.

DATES: Written comments must be received on or before October 20, 1997 to be assured of consideration.

ADDRESSES: Comments should be sent to: Paperwork Reduction Act Comments (NHP), Room 3200, National Archives and Records Administration, 8601 Adelphi Rd, College Park, MD 20740-6001; or faxed to 301-713-6913; or electronically mailed to tamee.fechhelm@arch2.nara.gov.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Requests for additional information or copies of the proposed information collections and supporting statements should be directed to Tamee Fechhelm at telephone number 301-713-6730, or fax number 301-713-6913.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: Pursuant to the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995 (Pub. L. 104-13), NARA invites the general public and other Federal agencies to comment on proposed information collections. The comments and suggestions should address one or more of the following points: (a) whether the proposed collection information is necessary for the proper performance of the functions of NARA; (b) the accuracy of NARA's estimate of the burden of the proposed information collections; (c) ways to enhance the quality, utility, and clarity of the information to be collected; and (d) ways to minimize the burden of the collection of information on respondents, including the use of information technology. The comments that are submitted will be summarized and included in the NARA request for Office of Management and Budget (OMB) approval. All comments will become a matter of public record. In this notice, NARA is soliciting comments concerning the following information collection:

Title: Questionnaire about Military Service.

OMB number: 3095-0029.

Agency form number: NA Form 13075.

Type of review: Regular.

Affected public: Veterans, their authorized representatives, state and local governments, and businesses.

Estimated number of respondents: 70,000.

Estimated time per response: 5 minutes.

Frequency of response: On occasion (when respondent wishes to request information from a military service record). Most of these respondents initially submitted a request on a SF 180 or in a letter for records that may have been lost in the 1973 fire.

Estimated total annual burden hours: 5,833 hours.

Abstract: Individuals who write to the National Personnel Records Center (NPRC) to request information from their military service record may receive this form. The information collection, used by the NPRC in cases where the information provided on the SF 180 or in a letter is not sufficient to locate the requested record or information, asks the requester to furnish additional information. A major fire on July 14, 1973, destroyed a number of military records at the NPRC. If the request involves a record or information that may be from records that were lost in the fire, the requester may be asked to complete NA Form 13075, Questionnaire about Military Service, so NPRC can search alternative sources to reconstruct the requested information.

Dated: August 13, 1997.

L. Reynolds Cahoon,

Assistant Archivist for Human Resources and Information Services.
