Columbia Gas Transmission Corporation; Notice of Compliance Filing

August 29, 1997.

Take notice that on August 26, 1997, Columbia Gas Transmission Corporation (Columbia) tendered for filing to become part of its FERC Gas Tariff, Second Revised Volume No. 1, 2nd Sub Sixth Revised Sheet No. 282, bearing a proposed effective date of July 7, 1997.

Columbia states that the purpose of this filing is to comply with the Commission's August 11, 1997, letter order accepting Columbia's July 14, 1997, filing made in compliance with an order issued July 3, 1997. The letter order directed Columbia to further revise Section 4.2(a)(2) of its tariff to clarify that the three-day posting period applies to firm capacity that will be available for a term of five months or more, but "less than" twelve months. The "less than" language is necessary to clarify an ambiguity between Sections 4.2(a)(1) and 4.2(a)(2). Columbia has revised Section 4.2(a)(2) in compliance with the letter order.

Columbia states that copies of its filing have been mailed to all firm customers, interruptible customers, affected state commissions, and parties on the official service list in this proceeding.

Any person desiring to protest said filing should file a protest with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 888 First Street, N.E., Washington, D.C.

20426, in accordance with Section 385.211 of the Commission's Regulations. All such protests must be filed as provided in Section 154.210 of the Commission's Regulations. Protests will be considered by the Commission in determining the appropriate action to be taken, but will not serve to make protestants parties to the proceedings. Copies of this filing are on file with the Commission and are available for public inspection in the Public Reference Room.

Columbia Gas Transmission Corporation; Notice of Proposed Changes in FERC Gas Tariff

August 29, 1997.

Take notice that on August 26, 1997, Columbia Gas Transmission Corporation (Columbia) tendered for filing to become part of its FERC Gas Tariff, Second Revised Volume No. 1, the following revised tariff sheets, bearing a proposed effective date of September 1, 1997:

Fourth Revised Sheet No. 280

Sixth Revised Sheet No. 281

Third Revised Sheet No. 283

Columbia states that the purpose of this filing is to comply with the Commission's Order No. 636-C wherein the Commission established five years as the maximum length contract term that must be matched by a shipper exercising its right of first refusal. In Order No. 636-C, the Commission further directed pipelines to reflect this five-year term matching cap in their right of first refusal tariff provisions within 180 days from issuance of Order No. 636-C. Columbia states that it has revised its General Terms and Conditions Sections 4.1(c)(1), (4) and 4.2(d) to provide that the longest contract term that a shipper exercising its right of first refusal must match is five years.

Columbia states that copies of its filing have been mailed to all firm customers, interruptible customers, and affected state commissions.

Any person desiring to be heard or to protest said filing should file a motion to intervene or protest with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 888 First Street, N.E. Washington, D.C.

20426, in accordance with Sections 385.214 and 385.211 of the Commission's regulations. All such interventions or protests must be filed as provided in Section 154.210 of the Commission's Regulations. Protests will be considered by the Commission in determining the appropriate action to be taken, but will not serve to make protestants parties to the proceedings. Any person wishing to become a party must file a motion to intervene. A copy of this filing is on file with the Commission and is available for public inspection in the Public Reference Room.

Equitrans, L.P.; Notice of Proposed Change in FERC Gas Tariff

August 29, 1997.

Take notice that on August 27, 1997, Equitrans, L.P. (Equitrans), tendered for filing to become part of its FERC Gas Tariff, First Revised Volume No. 1, the following tariff sheets to be effective October 1, 1997:

Primary Tariff Sheets

Ninth Revised Sheet No. 5
Tenth Revised Sheet No. 6
Eighth Revised Sheet No. 8

Alternate Tariff Sheets

Alt Ninth Revised Sheet No. 5
Alt Tenth Revised Sheet No. 6
Alt Eighth Revised Sheet No. 8

Pursuant to Order No. 472, the Commission has authorized pipeline companies to track and pass through to their customers their annual charges under an Annual Charge Adjustment (ACA) clause. The 1997 ACA unit surcharge approved by the Commission is $.0022 per Dth.

Equitrans states that it is filing primary and alternate tariff sheets to implement the change to its ACA unit surcharge. The primary and alternate sheets reflect no difference in the level of the ACA charge, and are filed to correspond to the primary and alternate rate sheets which Equitrans has filed in its general Section 4 rate case in Docket No. RP97-346.

Pursuant to Section 154.207 of the Commission's Regulations, Equitrans requests that the Commission grant any waivers necessary to permit the tariff sheets contained herein to become effective October 1, 1997.

Equitrans states that a copy of its filing has been served upon its customers and interested state commissions.

Any person desiring to be heard or to protest said filing should file a motion to intervene or protest with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 888 First Street, N.E., Washington, D.C. 20426, in accordance with Section 385.211 and 385.214 of the Commission's Rules and Regulations. All such motions or protests must be filed in accordance with Section 154.210 of the Commission's Regulations. Protests will be considered by the Commission in determining the appropriate action to be taken, but will not serve to make protestants parties to
