CNG Transmission Corporation; Notice of Section 4 Filing

September 8, 1997.

Take notice that on September 2, 1997, CNG Transmission Corporation (CNG) tendered for filing pursuant to Section 4 of the Natural Gas Act, a notice of termination of service on specified lines in Crook District, Boone County, West Virginia.

CNG states that it will abandon the lines by sale to Eastern American Energy Corporation and Classic Oil & Gas Resources, Inc. CNG further states that no contract for transportation service with CNG will be canceled or terminated as a result of the proposed abandonment of service.

Any person desiring to be heard or to protest said filing should file a motion to intervene or protest with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 888 First Street, N.E., Washington, D.C., 20426, in accordance with Rules 211 and 214 of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure. All such motions or protests should be filed on or before September 15, 1997. Protests will be considered by the Commission in determining the appropriate action to be taken, but will not serve to make protestants parties to the proceeding. Any person wishing to become a party must file a motion to intervene. Copies of this filing are on file with the Commission and are available for public inspection.

Crossroads Pipeline Company; Notice of Proposed Changes in FERC Gas Tariff

September 8, 1997.

Take notice that on September 3, 1997, Crossroads Pipeline Company (Crossroads) tendered for filing as part of its FERC Gas Tariff, First Revised Tariff Sheet No. 74. Crossroads asserts that this filing is being made to comply with the Commission's Order No. 626–C, which reduced the right-of first-refusal contract term cap to five years. Crossroads requests an effective date of September 25, 1997 for the proposed tariff sheet and a waiver of Section 154.207 of the Commission's Regulations.

Crossroads states further that copies of the filing were served on its current firm and interruptible customers and interested state commissions.

Any person desiring to be heard or to protest this filing should file a motion to intervene or protest with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 888 First Street, N.E., Washington, D.C. 20426, in accordance with the Commission's rules and regulations found in Sections 385.211 and 385.214. All such motions or protests must be filed as provided in Section 154.210 of the Commission's regulations. Protests will be considered by the Commission in determining the appropriate action to be taken in this proceeding, but will not serve to make protestants parties to the proceeding. Any person wishing to become a party must file a motion to intervene. Copies of Crossroads' filing are on file with the Commission and are available for public inspection in the Public Reference Room.

[Docket No. CP97-720-000]

KO Transmission Company; Notice of Application

September 8, 1997.

Take notice that on August 29, 1997, KO Transmission Company (KO Transmission) 139 East Fourth Street, Cincinnati, Ohio 45202, filed in Docket No. CP97–720–000 an application pursuant to Section 7(c) of the Natural Gas Act for authorization to acquire certain facilities from Columbia Gas Transmission Corporation (Columbia) in Menifee County, Bracken County, and Pendleton County, and Cold Spring, Kentucky, all as more fully set forth in the application on file with the Commission and open to public inspection.

Specifically, KO Transmission proposes to acquire (1) an undivided 12.62 percent interest in Columbia's Kentucky System extending from Columbia's interconnection with Columbia Gulf Transmission Company to Columbia's Foster Regulation Station, and (2) an undivided 67.33 percent interest in Columbia's Kentucky System extending northward from the Foster Regulation Station to the terminus of the Kentucky System. KO intends to acquire the 12.62 percent ownership interest for approximately $441,582 and the 67.33 ownership interest for approximately $198,820.

Any person desiring to be heard or to make any protest with reference to said application should on or before September 29, 1997, file with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, Washington, D.C. 20426, a motion to intervene or a protest in accordance with the requirements of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure (18 CFR 385.214 or 385.211) and the Regulations under the Natural Gas Act (18 CFR 157.10). All protests filed with the Commission will be considered by it in determining the appropriate action to be taken but will not serve to make the protestants parties to the proceeding. Any person wishing to become a party to a proceeding or to participate as a party in any hearing therein must file a motion to intervene in accordance with the Commission's Rules.

Take further notice that, pursuant to the authority contained in and subject to the jurisdiction conferred upon the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission by Sections 7 and 15 of the Natural Gas Act and the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure, a hearing will be held without further notice before the Commission or its designee on this application if no motion to intervene is filed within the time required herein, if the Commission on its own review of the matter finds that a grant of the certificate is required by the public convenience and necessity. If a motion for leave to intervene is timely filed, or if the Commission on its own motion believes that a formal hearing is required, further notice of such hearing will be duly given.

Under the procedure herein provided for, unless otherwise advised, it will be unnecessary for KO Transmission to appear or be represented at the hearing. Lois D. Cashell,

Secretary.
