SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION

Submission for OMB Review; Comment Request

Upon Written Request, Copies Available From: Securities and Exchange Commission, Office of Filings and Information Services, Washington, DC 20549.

Extension: Rule 17f–6, SEC File No. 270–392, OMB Control No. 3235–0447. Rule 2a19–1, SEC File No. 270–294, OMB Control No. 3235–0332. Rule 17f–2, SEC File No. 270–233, OMB Control No. 3235–0223.

Notice is hereby given that, pursuant to the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995 (44 U.S.C. 3501 et seq.), the Securities and Exchange Commission (''Commission'') has submitted to the Office of Management and Budget requests for extension of the previously approved collections of information discussed below.

Rule 17f–6 under the Investment Company Act of 1940 (''Act'') permits registered investment companies (''funds'') to maintain assets (i.e., margin) with futures commission merchants (''FCMs'') in connection with commodity transactions effected on both domestic and foreign exchanges.[1] Prior to the adoption of the rule, funds generally were required to maintain such assets in special accounts with a custodian bank.

Rule 17f–6 permits funds to maintain their assets with FCMs that are registered under the Commodity Exchange Act (''CEA'') and that are not affiliated with the fund. The rule requires that the manner in which the FCM maintains a fund's assets be governed by a written contract, which must contain certain provisions. First, the contract must provide that the FCM must comply with the segregation requirements of section 4d(2) of the CEA [7 U.S.C. 6d(2)] and the rules thereunder [17 CFR Chapter I] or, if applicable, the secured amount requirements of rule 30.7 under the CEA [17 CFR 30.7]. Second, the contract must provide that when placing the fund's margin with another entity for clearing purposes, the FCM must obtain an acknowledgment that the fund's assets are held on behalf of the FCM's customers in accordance with provisions under the CEA. Lastly, the contract must require the FCM, upon request, to furnish records on the fund's assets to the Commission or its staff.

The requirement of a written contract that contains certain provisions ensure important safeguards and other benefits relative to the custody of investment company assets by FCMs. For example, requiring FCMs upon request to furnish to the Commission or its staff information concerning the investment company's assets facilitates Commission inspections of investment companies. The contract requirement governing transfers of investment company margin seeks to accommodate the legitimate needs of the participants in the commodity settlement process, consistent with the safekeeping of investment company assets. The contract requirement requiring FCMs to comply with the segregation or secured amount requirements of the CEA and the rules thereunder is designed to safeguard fund assets held by FCMs.

The Commission estimates that approximately 2,000 investment companies could deposit margin with FCMs under rule 17f–6 in connection with their investments in futures contracts and commodity options. It is estimated that each investment company uses and deposits margin with 3 different FCMs in connection with its commodity transactions. Approximately 241 FCMs are eligible to hold investment company margin under the rule.[2]

The only paperwork burden of the rule consists of meeting the rule's contract requirements. The Commission estimates that after the first year, 2,000 investment companies will spend an average of 1 hour complying with the contract requirements of the rule (e.g., signing contracts with additional FCMs), for a total of 2,000 burden hours. The Commission estimates that each of the 241 FCMs eligible to hold investment company margin under the rule will spend 2 hours complying with the rule's contract requirements, for a total of 482 burden hours. The total annual burden for the rule are estimated to be 2,482 hours.

Rule 2a19–1 under the Act provides that investment company directors will not be considered interested persons, as defined by section 2(a) (19) of the Act, solely because they are registered broker-dealers or affiliated persons of registered broker-dealers, provided that the broker-dealer does not execute any portfolio transactions for the company's complex, engage in any principal transactions with the complex or distribute shares for the complex for at least six months prior to the time that the director is to be considered not to be an interested person and for the period during which the director continues to be considered not to be an interested person. The rule also requires the investment company's board of directors to determine that the company would not be adversely affected by refraining from business with the broker-dealer. In addition, the rule provides that no more than a minority of the disinterested directors of the company may be registered broker-dealers or their affiliates.

Before the adoption of rule 2a19–1, many investment companies found it necessary to file with the Commission applications for orders exempting directors from section 2(a)(19) of the Act. Rule 2a19–1 is intended to alleviate the burdens on the investment company industry of filing for such orders in circumstances where there is no potential conflict of interest. The conditions of the rule are designed to indicate whether the director has a stake in the broker-dealer's business with the company such that he or she might not be able to act independently of the company's management.

It is estimated that approximately 3,200 investment companies may choose to rely on the rule, and each investment company may spend one hour annually compiling and keeping records related to the requirements of the rule. The total annual burden associated with the rule is estimated to be 3,200 hours.

Rule 17f–2, under the Act, establishes safeguards for arrangements in which a registered management investment company is deemed to maintain custody of its own assets, such as when the fund maintains its assets in a facility that provides safekeeping but not custodial services. The rule includes several recordkeeping or reporting requirements. The funds directors must prepare a resolution designating not more than five fund officers or responsible employees who may have access to the fund's assets. The designated access persons (two or more of whom must act jointly when handling fund assets) must prepare a written notation providing certain information about each deposit or withdrawal of fund assets, and must transmit the notation to another officer or director designated by the directors. Independent public accountants must verify the fund's assets without prior notice to the fund twice each year.

[2] Commodity Futures Trading Commission, Annual Report (1996).

The requirement that directors designate access persons is intended to ensure that directors evaluate the trustworthiness of insiders who handle fund assets. The requirements that access persons act jointly in handling fund assets, prepare a written notation of each transaction, and transmit the notation to another designated person are intended to reduce the risk of misappropriation of the fund assets by access persons, and to ensure that adequate records are prepared, reviewed by a responsible third person, and available for examination by the Commission.

The Commission estimates that approximately 110 funds rely upon the rule (and that each fund offers an average of two separate series or portfolios subject to the rule). It is estimated that each fund spends approximately 2 hours annually in drafting pertinent resolutions by directors, 24 hours annually in preparing transaction notations, and 100 hours annually in performing unscheduled verifications of assets. Therefore, the total annual burden associated with this rule is estimated to be 13,860 hours.

SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION

Submission for OMB Review; Comment Request

Upon Written Request, Copies Available From: Securities and Exchange Commission, Office of Filings and Information Services, Washington, DC 20549.

Extension: Form 2–E and Rule 609, SEC File No. 270–222, OMB Control No. 3235–0233. Rule 6c–7, SEC File No. 270–269, OMB Control No. 3235–0276. Rule 11a–2, SEC File No. 270–267, OMB Control No. 3235–0272.

Notice is hereby given that, pursuant to the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995 (44 U.S.C. 3501 et seq.), the Securities and Exchange Commission (''Commission'') has submitted to the Office of Management and Budget requests for extension of the previously approved collections of information discussed below.

Form 2–E is used, pursuant to Rule 609 of Regulation E under the Securities Act of 1933, by small business investment companies or business development companies engaged in limited offerings of securities to report semi-annually the progress of an offering, including the number of shares sold. The form solicits information such as the dates an offering has commenced and completed, the number of shares sold and still being offered, amounts received in the offering, and expenses and underwriting discounts incurred in the offering. This information assists the Commission staff in determining whether the issuer has stayed within the limits of an exemptive offering.

Form 2–E must be filed semi-annually during an offering and as a final report at the completion of the offering. Less frequent filing would not allow the Commission to monitor the progress of the limited offering in order to ensure that the issuer was not attempting to avoid the normal registration provisions of the securities laws.

There has been approximately one filing on form 2–E under rule 609 of regulation E during each of the last two years. On average, approximately one respondent spends four hours collecting information, preparing, and filing a form 2–E for a total annual reporting and recordkeeping burden of four hours.

Rule 6c–7 under the Investment Company Act of 1940 (''1940 Act'') provides exemption from certain provisions of Sections 22(e) and 27 of the 1940 Act for registered separate accounts offering variable annuity contracts to certain employees of Texas institutions of higher education participating in the Texas Optional Retirement Program.

There are approximately 183 registrants governed by Rule 6c–7, with an estimated compliance time of 30 minutes per registrant for a total of 92 annual burden hours.

Rule 11a–2 permits certain registered insurance company separate accounts, subject to certain conditions, to make offers to exchange their securities for other investment company securities without obtaining prior Commission approval.

There are approximately 550 registrants governed by Rule 11a–2, with an estimated compliance time of 15 minutes per registrant for a total of 138 annual burden hours.

An agency may not conduct or sponsor, and a person is not required to respond to, a collection of information unless it displays a currently valid control number.

Written comments regarding the above information should be directed to the following persons: (i) Desk Officer for the Securities and Exchange Commission, Office of Information and Regulatory Affairs, Office of Management and Budget, Room 3208, New Executive Office Building, Washington, D.C. 20503; and (ii) Michael E. Bartell, Associate Executive Director, Office of Information Technology, Securities and Exchange Commission, 450 Fifth Street, N.W., Washington, D.C. 20549. Comments must be submitted to OMB on or before October 24, 1997.

SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION

Sunshine Act Meeting

Notice is hereby given, pursuant to the provisions of the Government in the Sunshine Act, Pub. L. 94–409, that the Securities and Exchange Commission will hold the following meeting during the week of September 29, 1997.

A closed meeting will be held on Monday, September 29, 1997, at 11:00 a.m.

Commissioners, Counsel to the Commissioners, the Secretary to the Commission, and recording secretaries will attend the closed meeting. Certain staff members who have an interest in the matters may also be present.

The General Counsel of the Commission, or his designee, has certified that, in his opinion, one or more of the exemptions set forth in 5 U.S.C. 552b(c) (4), (8), (9)(A) and (10), permit consideration of the scheduled matters at the closed meeting.

Commissioner Hunt, as duty officer, voted to consider the items listed for the closed meeting in a closed session.

The subject matter of the closed meeting scheduled for Monday, September 29, 1997, at 11:00 a.m., will be:
