Agency Information Collection Activities: Submission for OMB Review; Comment Request; Hazardous Waste Combustors; Revised Standards; Final Rule—Part 1

AGENCY: Environmental Protection Agency (EPA).

ACTION: Notice.

SUMMARY: In compliance with the Paperwork Reduction Act (44 U.S.C. 3501 et seq.), this document announces that the following new Information Collection Request (ICR) has been forwarded to the Office of Management and Budget (OMB) for review and approval: Hazardous Waste Combustors; Revised Standards; Final Rule—Part 1, EPA No. 1840.01. The ICR describes the nature of the information collection and its expected burden and cost.

DATES: Comments must be submitted on or before February 27, 1998.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Sandy Farmer at EPA by phone at (202) 260-2740, by email at farmer.sandy@epamail.epa.gov, or download off the Internet at <http://www.epa.gov/icr> and refer to EPA ICR No. 1840.01.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Title: Hazardous Waste Combustors; Revised Standards; Final Rule—Part 1, EPA No. 1840.01. This is a new collection.

Abstract: On April 19, 1996, EPA proposed revised standards for hazardous waste combustors (HWCs) (61 FR 17358), defined as incinerators, cement kilns, and light-weight aggregate kilns that burn hazardous waste. These rules were proposed under joint authority of the Resource Conservation and Recovery (RCRA) and the Clean Air Act (CAA), as amended. The proposal fulfills the Agency's commitments to meet CAA requirements and also to upgrade the emission standards for hazardous waste burning facilities, as outlined in the 1994 Hazardous Waste Combustion Strategy.

In the rulemaking entitled "Hazardous Waste Combustors; Revised Standards; Final Rule—Part 1," EPA finalizes some of the requirements contained in the earlier proposal. This ICR covers reporting and recordkeeping provisions of the new requirements. The changes to the RCRA regulations: (1) outline provisions for excluding generators of comparable/syngas fuel from the definition of solid waste under 40 CFR part 261; and (2) provide new RCRA permit modification provisions to make it easier for facilities to make changes to existing permits when adding air pollution equipment or making other changes in equipment or operation needed to comply with the upcoming air emission standards.

In addition to the RCRA changes, under the CAA the rule establishes 40 CFR part 63, subpart EEE, which applies to HWCs. As a first step in establishing national emission standards for hazardous air pollutants (NESHAPs) for HWCs (these standards were proposed on April 19, 1996 at 61 FR 17358), part 63, subpart EEE provides public notification and regulatory notification of intent to comply (NIC) provisions. These provisions require HWCs to submit materials to EPA outlining their plan to comply with the forthcoming NESHAP standards, which will be promulgated at a later date. These provisions also allow for extensions to the compliance period to promote the installation of cost effective pollution prevention technologies to replace or supplement emission control technologies for meeting the emission standards.

EPA is collecting the information for this rule to ensure adequate environmental protection. The information being collected is primarily for facilities to demonstrate to EPA that they meet the necessary criteria for regulatory exemptions. The information is necessary for EPA to ensure that the specified facilities are appropriately regulated, but that duplicate regulation is not taking place. EPA also requires the HWC notification procedures to ensure stakeholder involvement and to ensure that facilities are preparing to comply with the forthcoming NESHAPs for HWCs. Responses to this information collection are mandatory according to the Resource Conservation and Recovery Act.

An agency may not conduct or sponsor, and a person is not required to respond to, a collection of information unless it displays a currently valid OMB control number. The OMB control numbers for EPA's regulations are listed in 40 CFR part 9 and 48 CFR Chapter 15. The proposed rule was published on April 19, 1996 (61 FR 17358); and no comments were received on the information requirements.

Burden Statement: For those generators applying for the comparable/syngas fuel exemption, the average annual respondent reporting burden is estimated to be 0.5 hours per facility and the average annual recordkeeping burden is estimated to be 24.9 hours per facility. For burners of comparable/syngas fuels, there is no reporting burden and the annual recordkeeping burden is 3.3 hours per facility. For HWCs complying with the notification of intent to comply regulations, the average annual reporting burden (to EPA) is 60.4 hours per facility and the average annual recordkeeping burden is 9.0 hours per facility. Burden means the total time, effort, or financial resources expended by persons to generate, maintain, retain, or disclose or provide information to or for a Federal agency. This includes the time needed to review instructions; develop, acquire, install, and utilize technology and systems for the purposes of collecting, validating, and verifying information, processing and maintaining information, and disclosing and providing information; adjust the existing ways to comply with any previously applicable instructions and requirements; train personnel to be able to respond to a collection of information; search data sources; complete and review the collection of information; and transmit or otherwise disclose the information.

Respondents/Affected Entities: Hazardous waste combustors.

Estimated Number of Respondents: 315.

Frequency of Response: On occasion.

Estimated Total Annual Hour Burden: 12,905 hours.

Estimated Total Annualized Cost Burden: $1,660,000.

Send comments on the Agency's need for this information, the accuracy of the provided burden estimates, and any suggested methods for minimizing respondent burden, including through the use of automated collection techniques to the following addresses. Please refer to EPA ICR No. 1840.01 in any correspondence.
