[Docket No. CP98-159-000]

Phelps Dodge Corporation, Complainant, v. El Paso Natural Gas Company, Respondent; Notice of Complaint

December 31, 1997.

Take notice that on December 23, 1997, Phelps Dodge Corporation (PDC), 2600 North Central Avenue, Phoenix, Arizona 85004, filed a complaint in Docket No. CP98-159-000 pursuant to Section 5 of the Natural Gas Act (NGA) and Rule 206 of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure. PDC has filed this complaint requesting that the Commission require El Paso Natural Gas Company (El Paso) to comply with the terms and conditions of a transportation service agreement which is subject to the Commission's jurisdiction under the NGA, all as more fully set forth in the complaint which is on file with the Commission and open to public inspection.

Specifically, PDC complains that contrary to the express language of the service agreement, El Paso has refused to allow PDC to add new delivery points to provide firm transportation service at a PDC facility not previously served by El Paso. According to PDC, El Paso's refusal to serve PDC is not based on any physical or operational system capacity constraint, since there is an excess transportation capacity on El Paso's system. Instead, PDC believes that El Paso's refusal is based on an after-the-fact realization that honoring contractual commitments agreed to in a recent comprehensive rate settlement would not result in any additional revenue for El Paso in a post-settlement environment.

Any person desiring to be heard or to make a protest with reference to this complaint should on or before January 30, 1998, file with the Federal Energy

Regulatory Commission, 888 First Street, N.E., Washington, D.C. 20426, a motion to intervene or a protest in accordance with the requirements of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure (18 CFR 385.214 or 385.211). All protests filed with the Commission will be considered by it in determining the appropriate action to be taken but will not serve to make the protestants parties to the proceeding. Any person wishing to become a party to a proceeding or to participate as a party in any hearing therein must file a motion to intervene in accordance with the Commission's Rules. Answers to the complaint shall be due on or before January 30, 1998.

David P. Boergers,
Acting Secretary.
