Halliburton Energy Services,
Headquartered in Houston, Texas and
Operating in the Following States,
Colorado, Montana, Utah, West
Virginia; Amended Certification
Regarding Eligibility To Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance

In accordance with Section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974 (19 U.S.C. 2273) the Department of Labor issued a Certification of Eligibility to Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance on October 28, 1998, applicable to all workers of Halliburton Energy Services headquartered in Houston, Texas. The notice was published in the Federal Register on December 4, 1998 (63 FR 67140).

At the request of the company, the Department reviewed the certification for workers of the subject firm. New findings show that worker separations have occurred at Halliburton Energy Services operating at various locations in Colorado, Montana, Utah and West Virginia. The workers are engaged in activities related to exploration and drilling for unaffiliated firms in the oil industry.

The intent of the Department's certification is to include all workers of Halliburton Energy Services adversely affected by increased imports. Accordingly, the Department is amending the certification to cover workers of Halliburton Energy Services operating at various locations in Colorado, Montana, Utah and West Virginia.

The amended notice applicable to TA-W-35,056 is hereby issued as follows:

All workers of Halliburton Energy Services, headquartered in Houston, Texas (TA-W-35,056), operating at various locations in Colorado (TA-W-35,056T), Montana (TA-W-35,056U), Utah (TA-W-35,056V) and West Virginia (TA-W-35,056W) who became totally or partially separated from employment on or after September 4, 1997 through October 28, 2000 are eligible to apply for adjustment assistance under Section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974.

Signed at Washington, D.C. this 26th day of February, 1999.

Grant D. Beale,
Acting Director, Office of Trade Adjustment Assistance.

IEC Edinburg, A/K/A Calidad
Electronics, Inc., Edinburg, Texas;
Amended Certification Regarding
Eligibility to Apply for Worker
Adjustment Assistance

In accordance with Section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974 (19 U.S.C. 2273) the Department of Labor issued a Certification of Eligibility to Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance on September 22, 1998, applicable to all workers of IEC Edinburg, Edinburg, Texas. The notice was published in the Federal Register on October 9, 1998 (63 FR 54495).

At the request of the company and the State agency, the Department reviewed the certification for workers of this subject firm. The workers were engaged in the production of printed circuit boards. Findings show that some workers separated from employment at IEC Edinburg had their wages reported under a separate unemployment insurance (UI) tax account for Calidad Electronics, Inc., Edinburg, Texas.

The intent of the Department's certification is to include all workers of IEC Edinburg who were adversely affected by increased imports. Accordingly, the Department is amending the certification to reflect this matter.

The amended notice applicable to TA-W-34,552 is hereby issued as follows:

All workers of IEC Edinburg, also known as Calidad Electronics, Inc., Edinburg, Texas who became totally or partially separated from employment on or after May 7, 1997 through September 22, 2000 are eligible to apply for adjustment assistance under Section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974.

Signed at Washington, D.C. this 26th day of February, 1999.

Grant D. Beale,
Acting Director, Office of Trade Adjustment Assistance.
