Population-Based Models To Establish Surveillance for Asthma Incidence in Defined Geographic Areas; Notice of Availability of Funds

A. Purpose

The Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC) announces the availability of fiscal year (FY) 2001 funds for a cooperative agreement program for "Surveillance for Asthma Incidence: Developing Population-based Models." This program addresses the "Healthy People 2010" focus areas of Maternal, Infant, and Child Health, and Respiratory Diseases.

The purpose of the program is to assist in the definition of population-based models from which sites for the surveillance of incident cases of asthma can be established. It is anticipated that such models could form a reporting network in the future. Asthma Incidence Surveillance sites will be population-based centers designed to assess the public health impact of asthma, to determine the incidence of asthma and to identify population-based risk factors associated with the onset of asthma.
