Reliant Energy Power Generation, Inc., Reliant Energy Services, Inc., Mirant Americas Energy Marketing, LP, and Mirant California, Complainants v. California Independent System Operator Corporation, Respondent; Notice of Complaint

October 19, 2001.

Take notice that on October 18, 2001, Reliant Energy Power Generation, Inc., Reliant Energy Services, Inc., Mirant Americas Energy Marketing, LP and Mirant California, LLC (Complainants) submitted a complaint against the California Independent System Operator Corporation (CAISO) alleging that the CAISO is acting in a discriminatory and unduly preferential manner by granting advantages to its fellow state agency, the California Department of Water Resources (CDWR) (along with its marketing arm, the California Energy Resources Scheduler (CERS) that are not available to other participants in the CAISO market.

Complainants allege that the CAISO's discriminatory and unduly preferential actions violate the CAISO's Tariff, the Federal Power Act, and the Commission's own policies and orders. Complainants further allege that the CAISO's actions are causing injury to Complainants, to other market participants in California, and are threatening the viability of the CAISO market.

Copies of this filing were served upon the CAISO and other interested parties.

Any person desiring to be heard or to protest this filing should file a motion to intervene or protest with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 888 First Street, N.E., Washington, D.C. 20426, in accordance with Rules 211 and 214 of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure (18 CFR 385.211 and 385.214).
