Columbia Gulf Transmission Company; Notice of Tariff Filing

November 7, 2001.

Take notice that on November 1, 2001, Columbia Gulf Transmission Company (Columbia Gulf) tendered for filing as part of its FERC Gas Tariff, Second Revised Volume No. 1, tariff sheets listed in Appendix A to the filing, with a proposed effective date of December 1, 2001.

Columbia Gulf proposes to establish Rate Schedule PAL, under which interruptible parking and lending services would be performed, in order to provide its customers with additional flexibility to manage their natural gas supply portfolios and transportation agreements. Proposed Rate Schedule PAL is closely modeled after the parking and lending services already authorized by the Commission. The proposed parking and lending services will allow Columbia Gulf's customers to park or receive loaned gas at agreed upon points of service. Columbia Gulf states that Rate Schedule PAL services are optional and have the lowest scheduling priority.

Columbia Gulf states that copies of its filing have been mailed by first class mail to all firm customers, interruptible customers, and affected state commissions.

Any person desiring to be heard or to protest said filing should file a motion to intervene or a protest with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 888 First Street, NE., Washington, DC 20426, in accordance with Sections 385.214 or 385.211 of the Commission's Rules and Regulations. All such motions or protests must be filed in accordance with Section 154.210 of the Commission's Regulations. Protests will be considered by the Commission in determining the appropriate action to be taken, but will not serve to make protestants parties to the proceedings. Any person wishing to become a party must file a motion to intervene. Copies of this filing are on file with the Commission and are available for public inspection. National Fuel Gas Supply Corporation; Notice of Tariff Filing

November 7, 2001.

Take notice that on November 1, 2001, National Fuel Gas Supply Corporation (National) tendered for filing as part of its FERC Gas Tariff, Fourth Revised Volume No. 1, the following tariff sheet to become effective November 1, 2001:

Forty Second Revised Sheet No. 9

National states that under Article II, Section 2, of the settlement, it is required to recalculate the maximum Interruptible Gathering (IG) rate monthly and to charge that rate on the first day of the following month if the result is an IG rate more than 2 cents above or below the IG rate as calculated under Section 1 of Article II. The recalculation produced an IG rate of $0.15 per dth. In addition, Article III, Section 1 states that any overruns of the Firm Gathering service provided by National shall be priced at the maximum IG rate.

Any person desiring to be heard or to protest said filing should file a motion to intervene or a protest with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission,

888 First Street, NE., Washington, DC 20426, in accordance with sections 385.214 or 385.211 of the Commission's Rules and Regulations. [Docket No. OR02-1-000]

Plantation Pipe Line Company; Notice of Petition for Declaratory Order

November 7, 2001.

Take notice that on November 2, 2001, Plantation Pipe Line Company (Plantation), filed in Docket No. OR02-1-000, a petition pursuant to Section 207 of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure (18 CFR 385.207) for a declaratory order, as more fully set forth in the application on file with the Commission and open to public inspection. This filing may be viewed on the web at www.ferc.fed.us/online/rims.htm (call 202-208-2222 for assistance).

Plantation states that it proposes to abandon its 8-inch pipeline facilities serving the Chattanooga and Knoxville, Tennessee markets, and to serve those markets via a new 16-inch pipeline from Bremen, Georgia. The new pipeline would be owned by an affiliate. Plantation requests that the Commission find that the abandonment of the current facilities and service would not be subject to Commission jurisdiction, that certain proposed joint rates would be lawful, and that the proposed abandonment and rate arrangements would not affect the grandfathered status under the Energy Policy Act of 1992, of Plantation's existing mainline rates that apply to Bremen, Georgia.

Any person desiring to be heard or to protest said filing should file a motion to intervene or a protest with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 888 First Street, NE., Washington, DC 20426, in accordance with sections 385.214 or 385.211 of the Commission's Rules and Regulations. All such motions or protests must be filed on or before December 3, 2001. Protests will be considered by the Commission in determining the appropriate action to be taken, but will not serve to make protestants parties to the proceedings. Any person wishing to become a party to a proceeding or to participate as a party in any hearing therein must file a motion to intervene in accordance with the Commission's Rules.
