Any questions regarding this amendment should be directed to Robert T. Tomlinson; Director, Regulatory Affairs; at (719) 520-3788; Colorado Interstate Gas Company; P.O. Box 1087; Colorado Springs, Colorado 80944. process.

Any person desiring to be heard or to make any protest with reference to said document should, on or before April 4, 2002, file with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission; 888 First Street, NE., Washington, DC 20426 a protest or motion to intervene in accordance with the requirements of Rule 211 or 214 of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure (18 CFR 385.211 or 385.214) and the Regulations under the NGA (18 CFR 157.10). All protests filed with the Commission will be considered by it in determining the appropriate action to be taken but will not serve to make the protestants parties to the proceeding. Any person wishing to become a party to a proceeding or to participate as a party in any hearing therein must file a motion to intervene in accordance with the Commission's Rules.

A person obtaining intervenor status will be placed on the service list maintained by the Secretary of the Commission and will receive copies of all documents issued by the Commission, filed by the applicant, or filed by all other intervenors. An intervenor can file for rehearing of any Commission order and can petition for court review of any such order. However, an intervenor must serve copies of comments or any other filing it makes with the Commission to every other intervenor in the proceeding, as well as filing an original and 14 copies with the Commission.

A person does not have to intervene, however, in order to have comments considered; a person, instead, may submit two copies of such comments to the Secretary of the Commission. Commenters will be placed on the Commission's environmental mailing list, will receive copies of environmental documents, and will be able to participate in meetings associated with the Commission's environmental review process. Commenters will not receive copies of all documents filed by other parties or issued by the Commission and will not have the right to seek rehearing or appeal the Commission's final order to a Federal court.

The Commission will consider all comments and concerns equally, whether filed by Commenters or those requesting intervenor status.

Comments, protests, and interventions may be filed electronically via the Internet in lieu of paper copies. See 18 CFR 385.2001(a) (1)(iii) and the instructions on the Commission's web site under the "e-filing" link.

Take further notice that, pursuant to the authority contained in and subject to the jurisdiction conferred upon the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission by Sections 7 and 15 of the NGA and the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure, a hearing will be held without further notice before the Commission or its designee on this document if no motion to intervene is filed within the time required herein, if the Commission on its own review of the matter finds that a grant of the certificate is required by the public convenience and necessity. If a motion for leave to intervene is timely filed, or if the Commission on its own motion believes that a formal hearing is required, further notice of such hearing will be duly given.

Under the procedure herein provided for, unless otherwise advised, it will be unnecessary for CIG to appear or be represented at the hearing.

Linwood A. Watson, Jr.,

Deputy Secretary.

Eastern Shore Natural Gas Company; Notice of Proposed Changes in FERC Gas Tariff

March 14, 2002.

Take notice that on March 11, 2002, Eastern Shore Natural Gas Company (ESNG) tendered for filing as part of its FERC Gas Tariff, Second Revised Volume No. 1, Thirty-Sixth Revised Sheet No. 7 and Thirty-Sixth Revised Sheet No. 8, with a proposed effective date of April 1, 2002.

ESNG states that the purpose of this instant filing is to track rate changes attributable to storage services purchased from Transcontinental Gas Pipe Line Corporation (Transco) under its Rate Schedules GSS and LSS. The costs of the above referenced storage services comprise the rates and charges payable under ESNG's respective Rate Schedules GSS and LSS. This tracking filing is being made pursuant to Section

3 of ESNG's Rate Schedules GSS and LSS.

ESNG states that copies of the filing have been served upon its jurisdictional customers and interested State Commissions.

Any person desiring to be heard or to protest said filing should file a motion to intervene or a protest with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 888 First Street, NE, Washington, DC 20426, in accordance with Sections 385.214 or 385.211 of the Commission's Rules and Regulations. All such motions or protests must be filed in accordance with Section 154.210 of the Commission's Regulations. Protests will be considered by the Commission in determining the appropriate action to be taken, but will not serve to make protestants parties to the proceedings. Any person wishing to become a party must file a motion to intervene. Copies of this filing are on file with the Commission and are available for public inspection. This filing may also be viewed on the web at <http://www.ferc.gov> using the "RIMS" link, select "Docket#" and follow the instructions (call 202-208-2222 for assistance). Comments, protests and interventions may be filed electronically via the Internet in lieu of paper. Gulf South Pipeline Company, LP; Notice of Compliance Filing

March 14, 2002.

Take notice that on March 7, 2002, Gulf South Pipeline Company, LP (Gulf South) tendered for filing as part of its FERC Gas Tariff, Sixth Revised Volume No. 1, the following tariff sheets, to become effective February 25, 2002:

Substitute Second Revised Sheet No. 306
Substitute Original Sheet No. 307

Gulf South states that the above tariff sheets have been filed to comply with the Order issued February 22, 2002, 98 FERC ¶ 61,186. In its original filing, Gulf South proposed provisions concerning the allocated market and regulatory risks between Gulf South and its No Notice Service (NNS) Customers. The Commission directed Gulf South to remove the 90-day prior notice written provision and to file revised tariff sheets reflecting a more reasonable notice period. The compliance filing incorporates this change.

Any person desiring to protest said filing should file a protest with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 888 First Street, NE, Washington, DC 20426, in accordance with Section 385.211 of the Commission's Rules and Regulations. All such protests must be filed in accordance with Section 154.210 of the Commission's Regulations. Protests will be considered by the Commission in determining the appropriate action to be taken, but will not serve to make protestants parties to the proceedings. Minnesota Municipal Power Agency, Complainant, v. Southern Minnesota Municipal Power Agency, Respondent; Notice of Complaint

March 14, 2002.

Take notice that on March 11, 2002, the Minnesota Municipal Power Agency (the MMPA) filed a Complaint against the Southern Minnesota Municipal Power Agency (SMMPA), for improperly charging the MMPA for losses under SMMPA's Open Access Transmission Tariff.

Pursuant to requirements set forth in 18 CFR 385.206, MMPA has served a copy of the complaint and supporting documents upon SMMPA.

Any person desiring to be heard or to protest this filing should file a motion to intervene or protest with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 888 First Street, NE, Washington, DC 20426, in accordance with Rules 211 and 214 of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure (18 CFR 385.211 and 385.214). All such motions or protests must be filed on or before April 1, 2002. Protests will be considered by the Commission in determining the appropriate action to be taken, but will not serve to make protestants parties to the proceeding. Any person wishing to become a party must file a motion to intervene. Answers to the complaint shall also be due on or before April 1, 2002. Overthrust Pipeline Company; Notice of Report of Refunds

March 14, 2002.

Take notice that on March 11, 2002, Overthrust Pipeline Company tendered for filing a refund report. Overthrust states that the report documents refunds of amounts pertaining to and detailing the Deferred Income Tax (DIT) refund payments for the year 2001.

Overthrust states that it is filing the refund report pursuant to a Commission order dated May 21, 1991, "Order Approving Settlement with Modifications" in Docket Nos. RP85-60-000 and -002. Overthrust explains that Article V of the settlement, as modified, requires Overthrust to file an annual report 60 days after making the actual DIT refunds.

Any person desiring to protest said filing should file a protest with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 888 First Street, NE, Washington, DC 20426, in accordance with Section 385.211 of the Commission's Rules and Regulations. All such protests must be filed on or before March 21, 2002. Protests will be considered by the Commission in determining the appropriate action to be taken, but will
