

charged with the responsibility of investigating or prosecuting such a violation or enforcing or implementing a statute, rule, regulation, or order.

E. To the news media and the public pursuant to 28 CFR 50.2 unless it is determined that release of the specific information in the context of a particular case would constitute an unwarranted invasion of personal privacy.

F. To a Member of Congress, or staff acting upon the Member's behalf, when the Member or staff requests the information on behalf of and at the request of the individual who is the subject of the record.

G. To the General Services Administration and National Archives and Records Administration (NARA) in records management inspections conducted under the authority of 44 U.S.C. 2904 and 2906.

H. To an obligor who has posted a bond with the INS for the subject. INS may provide only such information, as either (1) may aid the obligor in locating the subject to insure his or her presence when required by INS, or (2) assist the obligor in evaluating the propriety of the following actions by INS: breach of bond —i.e., notice to the obligor that the subject of the bond has failed to appear which would render the full amount of the bond due and payable.

I. To contractors, grantees, experts, consultants, students, and others performing or working on a contract, service, grant, cooperative agreement, or other assignment for the Federal Government, when necessary to accomplish an agency function related to this system of records.

J. Pursuant to subsection (b)(3) of the Privacy Act, the Department may disclose relevant and necessary information to a former employee of the Department for purposes of: responding to an official inquiry by a federal, state, or local government entity or professional licensing authority, in accordance with applicable Department regulations; or facilitating communications with a former employee that may be necessary for personnel-related or other official purposes where the Department requires information and/or consultation assistance from the former employee regarding a matter within that person's former area of responsibility.

POLICIES AND PRACTICES FOR STORING RETRIEVING, ACCESSING, RETAINING, AND DISPOSING OF RECORDS IN THE SYSTEM: STORAGE:

Information is stored on an IBM mainframe computer at the Justice Data Center in Dallas, Texas.

RETRIEVABILITY:

Records may be retrieved by the alien registration number of the individuals covered by the system.

SAFEGUARDS:

Most INS offices are located in buildings under security guard, and access to premises is by official identification. Offices are locked during non-duty hours. Access to this system is obtained through remote terminals that require the use of restricted passwords and user identification.

RETENTION AND DISPOSAL:

The following INS proposal for retention and disposal is pending approval by NARA. Applications and supporting documents are placed in the Alien File (See JUSTICE/INS-001A). Electronic copies are stored on an IBM mainframe computer at the Justice Data Center in Dallas, Texas for ten years and then destroyed.

SYSTEM MANAGER(S) AND ADDRESS:

Immigration Services Division, Immigration and Naturalization Service, 801 I Street NW, Washington, DC 20536.

NOTIFICATION PROCEDURE:

Inquiries should be addressed to the Immigration Services Division, Attention: Naturalization Program manager.

RECORD ACCESS PROCEDURE:

Make all requests for access in writing to the FOIA/PA Officer at any INS office. Such requests may be submitted either by mail or in person. If a request for access is made by mail, the envelope and letter shall be clearly marked "Privacy Access Request." The requester shall include a description of the general subject matter and if known, the related file number. To identify a record, the requester should provide his or her full name, date and place of birth, verification of identity in accordance with 8 CFR 103.21(b), or a statement of penalty of perjury, and any other identifying information (i.e., alien registration number and receipt number to assist in locating and/or verifying the identity of the record) that may be of assistance in locating the record. The requester shall also provide a return address for transmitting the records to be released.

CONTESTING RECORDS PROCEDURE:

Any individual desiring to contest or amend information maintained in this system of records should direct his or her request to the system manager noted in "System Manager(s) and Address," or if unknown, the INS FOIA/PA Officer at 425 I Street NW, Washington, DC 20536. The request should state the information being contested, the reason(s) for contesting it, and the proposed amendment thereof. Persons filing such requests should mark the envelope with the following legend, Privacy Act Amendment Request.

RECORD SOURCE CATEGORIES:

Information contained in this system of records is obtained from the individuals covered by the system and from Service officers involved in taking actions on or making decisions about the applications of the individuals covered by the system. Information is also derived from other Federal Government agencies.
