

produced in the United States, either at Company facilities or by various domestic suppliers.

Further review of the initial decision shows that a very small amount of the foundry equipment from Springfield was transferred to the company's existing foundry operation at the Cast Light de Mexico S. A. plant located in Matamoros, Mexico. The transferred equipment to Mexico shows the machinery was not being used and therefore has not replaced any of the production previously performed at the Springfield, Ohio plant during the relevant period.

Conclusion

After review of the application and investigative findings, I conclude that there has been no error or misinterpretation of the law or of the facts which would justify reconsideration of the Department of Labor's prior decision. Accordingly, the application is denied.

Signed at Washington, DC, this 6th day of August, 2002.

Edward A. Tomchick,

Director, Division of Trade Adjustment Assistance.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

I. Background

Section 3(1) of the Fair Labor Standards Act (FLSA) provides, in part, that an employer may protect against unwitting employment of "oppressive child labor" [as defined in section 3(1)], by having on file a certificate issued pursuant to Department of Labor (DOL) regulations certifying that the named person meets the FLSA minimum wage requirements for employment. Section 11(c) of the FLSA requires that all employers covered by the Act make, keep, and preserve records of wages, hours, and other conditions and practices of employment with respect to their employees. Regulations 29 CFR part 570, subpart B, set forth the requirements for obtaining certifications of age. State age, employment or working certificates which substantially meet the Federal regulatory requirements for certificates of age are an acceptable alternative to obtaining a Federal Certificate of Age. Form WH-14 is the application which is to be completed by the youth and prospective employer to obtain a Federal Certificate of Age in those States where no State certificates are issued or State certificates do not meet the Federal regulatory requirements. This information collection is currently approved by the Office of Management and Budget (OMB) for use through January 2003.

I. Background

Coal mine operators and longshore companies desiring to be self-insurers are required by law (30 U.S.C. 933, Black Lung Benefits Act) and 33 U.S.C. 932 (Longshore and Harbor Workers' Compensation Act) to produce security in terms of an indemnity bond, security deposit, or, for Black Lung only, a letter of credit or 501(c)(21) trust. Once a company's application to become self-insured is reviewed by the Division of Coal Mine Workers' Compensation (DCMWC) or by the Division of Longshore and Harbor Workers' Compensation (DLHWC) and it is determined the company is potentially eligible, an amount of security is determined to guarantee the payment of benefits required by the Act. The OWCP-1 form is executed by the self-insurer who agrees to abide by the Department's rules and authorizes the Secretary, in the event of default, to file suit to secure payment from a bond underwriter or, in the case of a Federal Reserve account, to sell the securities for the same purpose. Regulations establishing this requirement are at 20 CFR 726.110 for DCMWC and 20 CFR 703.304 for DLHWC. A company cannot be authorized to self-insure until this requirement is met. This information collection is currently approved for use through January 31, 2003.

III. Current Actions

The Department of Labor seeks the extension of approval to collect this information in order to determine if a coal mine or longshore company is potentially eligible to become self-insured. The information is reviewed to deposited, indemnity bond is purchased, letter of credit is obtained, or 501(c)(21) trust assets are available; and that in case of default, OWCP has the authority to utilize the securities or bond. If this Agreement and Undertaking were not required, OWCP would not be empowered to utilize the
