

OCC believes the proposed rule change is consistent with section 17A of the Act because it provides for the reasonable allocation of costs to provide ancillary services to clearing members.

(B) Self-Regulatory Organization's Statement on Burden on Competition

OCC does not believe that the proposed rule change would impose any burden on competition.

Written comments were not and are not intended to be solicited with respect to the proposed rule change, and none have been received.

Because the foregoing rule change changes fees charged clearing members by OCC, it has become effective pursuant to section 19(b)(3)(A)(ii) of the Act³ and rule 19b-4(f)(2)⁴ thereunder. At any time within sixty days of the filing of the proposed rule change, the Commission may summarily abrogate such rule change if it appears to the Commission that such action is necessary or appropriate in the public interest, for the protection of investors, or otherwise in furtherance of the purposes of the Act.
