DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE

Notice of Lodging of Consent Decree Under the Comprehensive Environmental Response, Compensation, and Liability Act

Notice is hereby given that on December 28, 2001, a proposed consent decree in United States v. State of California, Civil No. 01-11161 CAS (RZx), was lodged with the United States District Court for the Central District of California.

This consent decree represents a settlement of claims brought against the State of California ("State") relating to the Casmalia Resources Hazardous Waste Disposal Site ("Site") located near Casmalia, California. The United States alleges in its complaint that the State disposed hazardous substances at the Site and seeks the recovery of response costs incurred and to be incurred related to the Site pursuant to the Comprehensive Environmental Response, Compensation, and Liability Act, 42 U.S.C. § 9601 et seq.

The consent decree requires the State to pay $15 million, in addition to agreeing not to seek reimbursement of $1.4 million in response costs incurred by the California Department of Toxic Substances Control. The total value of the State's settlement is $16.4 million.

The Department of Justice will receive, for a period of sixty (60) days from the date of this publication, comments relating to the consent decree. As a result of the discovery of anthrax contamination at the District of Columbia mail processing center in mid-October, 2001, the delivery of regular first-class mail sent through the U.S. Postal Service has been disrupted. Consequently, public comments which are addressed to the Department of Justice in Washington, DC and sent by regular, first-class mail through the U.S. Postal Service are not expected to be received in timely manner. Therefore, comments should be addressed to the Assistant Attorney General, Environment and Natural Resources Division, Department of Justice, and
