

of subject merchandise from the PRC, including Clipper and Golden Light, the cash-deposit rate will be the rate applicable to the PRC supplier of that exporter. These deposit requirements shall remain in effect until publication of the final results of the next administrative review.

This notice serves as a final reminder to importers of their responsibility under 19 CFR 351.402(f)(2) (2001) to file a certificate regarding the reimbursement of antidumping duties prior to liquidation of the relevant entries during these review periods. Pursuant to 19 CFR 351.402(f)(3), failure to comply with this requirement, could result in the Department's presumption that reimbursement of antidumping duties occurred and the subsequent assessment of doubled antidumping duties.

This notice also serves as a reminder to parties subject to administrative protective order (APO) of their responsibility concerning the disposition of proprietary information disclosed under APO in accordance with 19 CFR 351.305. Timely written notification of the return/destruction of APO materials or conversion to judicial protective order is hereby requested. Failure to comply with the regulations and the terms of an APO is a sanctionable violation.

We are issuing and publishing this determination and notice in accordance with sections 751(a)(1) and 777(i)(1) of the Act and 19 CFR 351.210(c) (2001).

Dated: January 21, 2003.

Faryar Shirzad,

Assistant Secretary for Import Administration.

SUMMARY: On August 6, 2002, the Department of Commerce published the initiation of the new shipper reviews of the antidumping duty order on honey from the People's Republic of China. The review covers Chengdu-Duijiangyan Dubao Bee Industrial Co., Ltd., and Wuhan Bee Healthy Co., Ltd. The period of review is December 1, 2001, through May 31, 2002. For the reasons discussed below, we are rescinding the review of Chengdu-Duijiangyan Dubao Bee Industrial Co., Ltd.¹

EFFECTIVE DATE: January 30, 2003.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Angelica Mendoza or Donna Kinsella at (202) 482-3019 and (202) 482-0194, respectively; AD/CVD Enforcement, Office 8, Group III, Import Administration, International Trade Administration, U.S. Department of Commerce, 14th Street and Constitution Avenue, NW., Washington, DC 20230.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

The Applicable Statute and Regulations

Unless otherwise indicated, all citations to the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended (the Act), are references to the provisions effective January 1, 1995, the effective date of the amendments made to the Act by the Uruguay Round Agreements Act. In addition, unless otherwise indicated, all citations to the Department of Commerce's (the Department's) regulations are to 19 CFR part 351 (April 2002).

Scope of the Order

The products covered by this antidumping duty order are natural honey, artificial honey containing more than 50 percent natural honey by weight, preparations of natural honey containing more than 50 percent natural honey by weight, and flavored honey.

¹ We are continuing the new shipper review of the antidumping duty order on honey from the People's Republic of China for Wuhan Bee Healthy Co., Ltd.

The subject merchandise includes all grades and colors of honey whether in liquid, creamed, comb, cut comb, or chunk form, and whether packaged for retail or in bulk form. The merchandise subject to this order is currently classifiable under subheadings 0409.00.00, 1702.90.90, and 2106.90.99 of the Harmonized Tariff Schedule of the United States (HTSUS). Although the HTSUS subheadings are provided for convenience and U.S. Customs Service (U.S. Customs) purposes, the Department's written description of the merchandise under order is dispositive.

Background

On June 28, 2002, Chengdu-Duijiangyan Dubao Bee Industrial Co., Ltd. (Dubao), a producer and exporter of subject merchandise, submitted a request for a new shipper review. Dubao certified in its new shipper review request that (1) it did not export honey to the United States during the period of investigation (POI), (2) it has never been affiliated with any exporter or producer which did export honey during the POI, and (3) its export activities are not controlled by the central government of the People's Republic of China (PRC). Based on Dubao's certifications, the Department initiated a new shipper review of the antidumping duty order on honey from the PRC for "Chengdu-Duijiangyan Dubao Bee Industrial Co., Ltd." for the time period December 1, 2001, through May 31, 2002. See Honey from the People's Republic of China: Initiation of New Shipper Antidumping Duty Reviews, 67 FR 50862 (August 6, 2002).

On November 21, 2002, Dubao informed the Department that its counsel incorrectly referred to Dubao as "Chengdu-Duijiangyan Dubao Bee Industrial Co., Ltd." in its submissions to the Department. Dubao claims that the correct name of the company is "Sichuan-Duijiangyan Dubao Bee Industrial Co., Ltd." We did not receive any comments from the American Honey Producers Association nor the Sioux Honey Association (collectively, petitioners) on this issue.

Rescission of Review

Dubao did not provide the Department with the correct certifications required under 351.214(b)(2) of the Department's regulations for a new shipper review. The Department's regulations at 19 CFR 351.214(b)(2) state that, if the company requesting the review is both the exporter and the producer of the subject merchandise, then the request from this company must contain a certification that the company did not export subject merchandise to the United States during the POI. In addition, those regulations require that the request for the new shipper review contain a certification that the exporter or producer has never been affiliated with any exporter or producer that exported subject merchandise to the United States during the POI. Moreover, those regulations further specify that, in an antidumping proceeding involving imports from a nonmarket economy country, the request for a new shipper review must also contain a certification that the export activities of the exporter or producer are not controlled by the central government.

As noted above, Dubao failed to identify the correct name of the exporter and producer of the subject merchandise for purposes of its required certifications. Therefore, we find it appropriate to rescind the new shipper review of Dubao based on its failure to provide the proper certifications pursuant to 19 CFR 351.214(b)(2).

Notification

Bonding is no longer permitted to fulfill security requirements for shipments from Dubao of honey from the PRC entered, or withdrawn from warehouse, for consumption in the United States on or after the publication of this rescission notice in the Federal Register.

This notice also serves as the only reminder to parties subject to administrative protective orders (APO) of their responsibility concerning the disposition of proprietary information disclosed under APO in accordance with 19 CFR 351.305(a)(3). Timely written notification of the return/destruction of APO material or conversion to judicial protective order is hereby requested. Failure to comply with the regulations and terms of an APO is a violation which is subject to sanctions.

We are issuing and publishing this determination and notice in accordance with sections 751(a)(2)(B)(iv) and 777(i) of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended.

Dated: January 23, 2003.

Assistant Secretary for Import Administration.

Honey From the People's Republic of China: Extension of Time Limit for Preliminary Results of New Shipper Antidumping Duty Review

AGENCY: Import Administration, International Trade Administration, Department of Commerce.

ACTION: Notice of extension of time limit for preliminary results of new shipper antidumping duty review.

EFFECTIVE DATE: January 30, 2003.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT:

Angelica Mendoza or Donna Kinsella at (202) 482-3019 or (202) 482-0194, respectively; Antidumping and Countervailing Duty Enforcement Group III, Import Administration, International Trade Administration, U.S. Department of Commerce, 14th Street and Constitution Avenue, NW., Washington, DC 20230.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

The Applicable Statute

Unless otherwise indicated, all citations to the statute are references to the provisions effective January 1, 1995, the effective date of the amendments made to the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended (the Act). In addition, unless otherwise indicated, all citations to the Department's regulations are references to the provisions codified at 19 CFR part 351 (2002).

Background

The Department received a timely request from Wuhan Bee Healthy Co., Ltd. (Wuhan), in accordance with 19 CFR 351.214(c), for a new shipper review of the antidumping duty order on honey from the People's Republic of China (PRC), which has a December annual anniversary month and a June semiannual anniversary month. On July 31, 2002, the Department found that the request for review met all the regulatory requirements set forth in section 351.214(b) of the Department's regulations and initiated this new shipper antidumping review covering the period December 1, 2001, through May 31, 2002. See Honey from the People's Republic of China: Initiation of New Shipper Antidumping Reviews, 67 FR 50862 (August 6, 2002).¹ The preliminary results are currently due no later than January 27, 2003.

Extension of Time Limits for Preliminary Results

Pursuant to section 751(a)(2)(B) of the Act, the Department may extend the deadline for completion of the preliminary results of a new shipper review if it determines that the case is extraordinarily complicated. The Department has determined that this case is extraordinarily complicated, and the preliminary results of this new shipper review cannot be completed within the statutory time limit of 180 days. Specifically, a number of complex affiliation issues have been raised. The Department has issued supplemental questionnaires to collect additional information about these issues. In addition, we need more time to obtain additional information on sales and factors of production. Given the issues in this case, the Department finds that this case is extraordinarily complicated, and cannot be completed within the statutory time limit.

Accordingly, the Department is fully extending the time limit for the completion of the preliminary results by 300 days, to May 27, 2003, in accordance with section 751(a)(2)(B)(iv) of the Act and 351.214(i)(2) of the Department's regulations. The final results will in turn be due 90 days after the date of issuance of the preliminary results, unless extended.

Dated: January 23, 2003.

Joseph A. Spetrini,

Deputy Assistant Secretary for Import Administration, Group III.
