Employee Benefits Security Administration

Prohibited Transaction Exemption (PTE) 2004-01; Exemption Application No. D-11191; United States Steel and Carnegie Pension Fund, Located in Atlanta, GA

AGENCY: Employee Benefits Security Administration, Department of Labor (the Department).

ACTION: Notice of technical correction.

On January 5, 2004, the Department published PTE 2003-40 in the Federal Register at 69 FR 375. PTE 2003-40 permits the in kind contribution of certain timber rights (the Timber Rights) under two timber purchase and cutting agreements to The United States Steel Corporation Plan for Employee Pension Benefits (the Plan) by the United States Steel Corporation (US Steel), the Plan sponsor and a party in interest with respect to the Plan. The exemption also permits ancillary transactions between the Plan and US Steel arising from certain rights retained by US Steel related to the timberland on which the Timber Rights are based.

Due to two technical errors appearing in the final exemption, the Department is hereby making certain revisions to the document. First, on page 375 of the notice granting the final exemption, the prohibited transaction exemption number, contained in the bracketed text at the beginning of the document, has been redesignated as "[Prohibited Transaction Exemption 2004-01; * * *]," to reflect the correct publication year and document number. Second, on page 383 of the grant notice, the final paragraph is revised to read as follows to reflect the correct signature date: "Signed at Washington, DC, this 30th day of December, 2003."

Mellon Bank, N.A., Pittsburgh, PA; Notice of Negative Determination on Reconsideration on Remand

The United States Court of International Trade (USCIT) granted the Secretary of Labor's motion for a voluntary remand for further investigation in Former Employees of Mellon Bank, N.A. v. Elaine Chao, U.S. Secretary of Labor, No. 03-00374.

The Department's initial negative determination for the workers of Mellon Bank, N.A. (hereafter "Mellon Bank") was issued on April 14, 2003, and published in the Federal Register on May 1, 2003 (68 FR 23322). The determination was based on the finding that workers did not produce an article within the meaning of section 222 of the Trade Act of 1974. The Department determined that the subject worker group were not engaged in the production of an article, but engaged in activities related to computer technology services.

By letter to the U.S. Court of International Trade, filed on June 13, 2003, the petitioner requested administrative reconsideration. The petitioner asserted that the workers produced a product through development and creation of software and, therefore, were not service providers.

On remand, the Department conducted an investigation to determine whether the petitioners were production workers and, if so, whether the workers were eligible to apply for TAA. The remand investigation consisted of independent research and analysis of software as a commodity and requesting additional information from the petitioner and the company regarding the functions of the subject worker group and the operations of the subject company.

The remand investigation revealed that Mellon Bank provides financial services for corporations, institutions and wealthy individuals. These services include asset management, trust and custody securities lending, foreign
