the SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION section of the related proposed rule which is published in the proposed rules section of this Federal Register.

II. What Has Minnesota Submitted?

On December 19, 2002, the MPCA submitted a revision to Minnesota's SIP for SO₂ for the United Defense, LP facility located in Anoka County at 4800 East River Road, Fridley, Minnesota. This revision replaces the Administrative Order, originally issued to the facility on May 27, 1992, with a Title V permit containing non-expiring Title I SIP conditions, issued on November 25, 2002.

In addition to changing the form of the SIP for United Defense, the revision reflects several operational changes which result in reduced modeled ambient SO₂ impacts. The revised SIP reflects the fact that several older boilers were replaced by three newer units according to the schedule in the original Administrative Order. In addition, non-expiring permit conditions limit the sulfur content in the fuel used, whereas the Administrative order set emission limits for SO₂. The new boilers are restricted to using either natural gas or No. 2 fuel oil with a maximum of 0.05 percent sulfur by weight; the Administrative Order allowed up to 0.40 percent sulfur. Standby generators are restricted to using diesel fuel with a maximum sulfur content of 0.05 percent; the Administrative Order allowed up to 0.50 percent sulfur. The permit no longer allows the use of waste oil, with up to 1.9 percent sulfur, which had been allowed by the Administrative Order. To demonstrate compliance with these provisions, the facility is required to obtain and maintain written documentation of each shipment of No. 2 fuel oil and diesel fuel oil received for the boilers. The documentation must include the sulfur content of the fuel and the method used to determine the sulfur content.

The facility has also established federally enforceable emission limits for volatile organic compounds, nitrogen oxides, hazardous air pollutants, particulate matter, and total particulate matter to avoid classification as a major source under new source review or national emission standards for hazardous air pollutants.

Minnesota has submitted updated dispersion modeling to support the proposed changes at the facility.

III. Did Minnesota Hold a Public Hearing?

Under Minnesota administrative procedures, the MPCA may publish a public notice and offer the opportunity for a public hearing in lieu of automatically holding a hearing. The MPCA published notice of its intended action on this permit and SIP revision; instituted a public comment period which ran from October 17, 2002, to November 15, 2002; and offered the opportunity for interested persons to request that MPCA hold a public information meeting, request that MPCA hold a contested case hearing, and/or submit a petition to the Commissioner requesting that the MPCA Board consider the permit matter. The MPCA received no comments pertaining to the SIP conditions and there were no requests for a public hearing.

IV. What Action Is EPA Taking?

EPA is approving the December 19, 2002, revision to SIP for SO₂ for the United Defense, LP facility located in Anoka County at 4800 East River Road, Fridley, Minnesota. The recordkeeping requirements are appropriate to demonstrate compliance with sulfur content limits and the state has demonstrated through appropriate use of dispersion modeling that the area remains in attainment of the National Ambient Air Quality Standards for SO₂.

V. Statutory and Executive Order Reviews

Executive Order 12866: Regulatory Planning and Review

Under Executive Order 12866 (58 FR 51735, October 4, 1993), this action is not a "significant regulatory action" and therefore is not subject to review by the Office of Management and Budget.

Executive Order 13211: Actions Concerning Regulations That Significantly Affect Energy Supply, Distribution, or Use

For this reason, this action is also not subject to Executive Order 13211, "Actions Concerning Regulations That Significantly Affect Energy Supply, Distribution, or Use" (66 FR 28355, May 22, 2001).

Regulatory Flexibility Act

This action merely approves state law as meeting Federal requirements and imposes no additional requirements beyond those imposed by state law. Accordingly, the Administrator certifies that this rule will not have a significant economic impact on a substantial number of small entities under the Regulatory Flexibility Act (5 U.S.C. 601 et seq.).

Unfunded Mandates Reform Act

Because this rule approves pre-existing requirements under state law and does not impose any additional enforceable duty beyond that required by State law, it does not contain any unfunded mandate or significantly or uniquely affect small governments, as described in the Unfunded Mandates Reform Act of 1995 (Pub. L. 104-4).

Executive Order 13175: Consultation and Coordination With Indian Tribal Governments

This rule also does not have tribal implications because it will not have a substantial direct effect on one or more Indian tribes, on the relationship between the Federal government and Indian tribes, or on the distribution of power and responsibilities between the Federal government and Indian tribes, as specified by Executive Order 13175 (65 FR 67249, November 9, 2000).

Executive Order 13132: Federalism

This action also does not have federalism implications because it does not have substantial direct effects on the States, on the relationship between the national government and the States, or on the distribution of power and responsibilities among the various levels of government, as specified in Executive Order 13132 (64 FR 43255, August 10, 1999). This action merely approves a State rule implementing a Federal standard, and does not alter the relationship or the distribution of power and responsibilities established in the Clean Air Act.

Executive Order 13045: Protection of Children From Environmental Health and Safety Risks

This rule also is not subject to Executive Order 13045 "Protection of Children From Environmental Health Risks and Safety Risks" (62 FR 19885, April 23, 1997), because it is not economically significant.

National Technology Transfer Advancement Act

In reviewing SIP submissions, EPA's role is to approve state choices, provided that they meet the criteria of the Clean Air Act. In this context, in the absence of a prior existing requirement for the State to use voluntary consensus standards (VCS), EPA has no authority to disapprove a SIP submission for failure to use VCS. It would thus be inconsistent with applicable law for EPA, when it reviews a SIP submission, to use VCS in place of a SIP submission that otherwise satisfies the provisions of the Clean Air Act. Thus, the requirements of section 12(d) of the National Technology Transfer and Advancement Act of 1995 (15 U.S.C. 272 note) do not apply.

Paperwork Reduction Act

This rule does not impose an information collection burden under the provisions of the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995 (44 U.S.C. 3501 et seq.).

Congressional Review Act

The Congressional Review Act, 5 U.S.C. 801 et seq., as added by the Small Business Regulatory Enforcement Fairness Act of 1996, generally provides that before a rule may take effect, the agency promulgating the rule must submit a rule report, which includes a copy of the rule, to each House of the Congress and to the Comptroller General of the United States. EPA will submit a report containing this rule and other required information to the U.S. Senate, the U.S. House of Representatives, and the Comptroller General of the United States prior to publication of the rule in the Federal Register. A major rule cannot take effect until 60 days after it is published in the Federal Register. This action is not a "major rule" as defined by 5 U.S.C. 804(2).

Under section 307(b)(1) of the Clean Air Act, petitions for judicial review of this action must be filed in the United States Court of Appeals for the appropriate circuit by October 18, 2004. Filing a petition for reconsideration by the Administrator of this final rule does not affect the finality of this rule for the purposes of judicial review nor does it extend the time within which a petition for judicial review may be filed, and shall not postpone the effectiveness of such rule or action. This action may not be challenged later in proceedings to enforce its requirements. (See section 307(b)(2).)

National Emission Standards for Hazardous Air Pollutants for Stationary Combustion Turbines

AGENCY: Environmental Protection Agency (EPA).

ACTION: Final rule; stay.

SUMMARY: The EPA is staying the effectiveness of two subcategories of the National Emission Standards for Hazardous Air Pollutants (NESHAP) for stationary combustion turbines: Lean premix gas-fired turbines and diffusion flame gas-fired turbines. Pending the outcome of EPA's proposal to delete these subcategories from the source category list (68 FR 18338, April 7, 2004), EPA is staying the effectiveness of the emissions and operating limitations in the stationary combustion turbines NESHAP for new sources in the lean premix gas-fired turbines and diffusion flame gas-fired turbines subcategories. This action is necessary to avoid wasteful and unwarranted expenditures on installation of emission controls which will not be required if the subcategories are delisted.

DATES: The final rule is effective on August 18, 2004.
