Agency Information Collection Activities: Reinstatement of a Previously Approved Collection; Comments Requested

ACTION: 60-day notice of information collection under review: 2006 Census of Law Enforcement Training Academies.

The Department of Justice (DOJ), Office of Justice Programs, Bureau of Justice Statistics (BJS), has submitted the following information collection request to the Office of Management and Budget (OMB) for review and approval in accordance with the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995. The proposed information collection is published to obtain comments from the public and affected agencies. Comments are encouraged and will be accepted for "sixty days" until December 27, 2005. This process is conducted in accordance with 5 CFR 1320.10.

If you have comments especially on the estimated public burden or associated response time, suggestions, or need a copy of the proposed information collection instrument with instructions or additional information, please contact Matthew Hickman, Bureau of Justice Statistics, 810 Seventh St., NW., Washington, DC 20531.

Written comments and suggestions from the public and affected agencies concerning the proposed collection of information are encouraged. Your comments should address one or more of the following four points:

—Evaluate whether the proposed collection of information is necessary for the proper performance of the functions of the agency, including whether the information will have practical utility;

—Evaluate the accuracy of the agencies estimate of the burden of the proposed collection of information, including the validity of the methodology and assumptions used;

—Enhance the quality, utility, and clarity of the information to be collected; and —Minimize the burden of the collection of information on those who are to respond, including through the use of appropriate automated, electronic, mechanical, or other technological collection techniques or other forms of information technology, e.g., permitting electronic submission of responses.

Overview of this information collection:

- (1) Type of Information Collection: Reinstatement, with change, of a previously approved collection for which approval has expired.
- (2) Title of the Form/Collection: 2006 Census of Law Enforcement Training Academies.
- (3) Agency form number, if any, and the applicable component of the Department of Justice sponsoring the collection: Form Number: CJ-52.
- (4) Affected public who will be asked or required to respond, as well as a brief abstract: Primary: Federal, State, and Local Government. This information collection is a census of law enforcement training academies. The information will provide national statistics on law enforcement training staff, recruits/trainees, curricula, facilities, and policies.
- (5) An estimate of the total number of respondents and the amount of time estimated for an average respondent to respond: It is estimated that 650 respondents will complete a one and one-half hour form.
- (6) An estimate of the total public burden (in hours) associated with the collection: There are an estimated 975 total annual burden hours associated with this collection.

If additional information is required contact: Brenda E. Dyer, Department Clearance Officer, United States Department of Justice, Justice Management Division, Policy and Planning Staff, Patrick Henry Building, Suite 1600, 601 D Street NW., Washington, DC 20530, or by e-mail at brenda.e.dyer@usdoj.gov.

Dated: October 14, 2005.

Burlington Industries LLC Corporate Office, a Division of WL Ross & Company LLC Now Known as International Textile Group, Inc., Greensboro, NC

Amended Certification Regarding Eligibility To Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance and Alternative Trade Adjustment Assistance

In accordance with section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974 (19 U.S.C. 2273), and section 246 of the Trade Act of 1974, (26 U.S.C. 2913), as amended, the Department of Labor issued a Certification of Eligibility To Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance and Alternative Trade Adjustment

Assistance on June 9, 2004, applicable to workers of Burlington Industries LLC, Corporate Office, a division of WL Ross & Company LLC, Greensboro, North Carolina. The notice was published in the Federal Register on July 7, 2004 (69 FR 40984).

At the request of the State agency, the Department reviewed the certification for workers of the subject firm. New information shows that Burlington Industries LLC, Corporate Office, a division of WL Ross & Company LLC was purchased by International Textile Group, Inc. during 2004. Workers wages at the subject firm are being reported under the Unemployment Insurance (UI) tax account for International Textile Group, Inc., Greensboro, North Carolina.

Accordingly, the Department is amending the certification to properly reflect this matter.

The intent of the Department's certification is to include all workers of Burlington Industries LLC, Corporate Office, a division of WL Ross & Company LLC, now known as International Textile Group who was adversely affected by increased imports.

The amended notice applicable to TA-W-54,821 is hereby issued as follows:

All workers of Burlington Industries LLC, Corporate Office, a division of WL Ross & Company LLC, now known as International Textile Group, Inc., Greensboro, North Carolina (TA-W-54,821), who became totally or partially separated from employment on or after February 5, 2004, through June 9, 2006, are eligible to apply for adjustment assistance under Section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974, and are also eligible to apply for alternative trade adjustment assistance under Section 246 of the Trade Act of 1974.

Signed at Washington, DC this 14th day of October 2005.

Richard Church,

Certifying Officer, Division of Trade Adjustment Assistance.

Cequent Consumer Products, a Subsidiary of Trimas Corporation, Sheffield, PA; Notice of Revised Determination on Reconsideration of Alternative Trade Adjustment Assistance

By letter dated September 15, 2005, a company official requested administrative reconsideration regarding Alternative Trade Adjustment Assistance (ATAA) applicable to workers of the subject firm. The negative determination was signed on August 16, 2005, and was published in the Federal Register on September 8, 2005 (70 FR 53391).

The workers of Cequent Consumer Products, a subsidiary of Trimas Corporation, Sheffield, Pennsylvania were certified eligible to apply for Trade Adjustment Assistance (TAA) on August 16, 2005.

The initial ATAA investigation determined that the skills of the subject worker group are easily transferable to other positions in the local area.

In the request for reconsideration, the company official provided new information confirming that the skills of the workers at the subject firm are not easily transferable in the local commuting area.

Additional investigation has determined that the workers possess skills that are not easily transferable. A significant number or proportion of the worker group are age fifty years or over. Competitive conditions within the industry are adverse.

Conclusion

After careful review of the additional facts obtained on reconsideration, I conclude that the requirements of Section 246 of the Trade Act of 1974, as amended, have been met for workers at the subject firm.

In accordance with the provisions of the Act, I make the following certification:

All workers of Cequent Consumer Products, a subsidiary of Trimas Corporation, Sheffield, Pennsylvania, who became totally or partially separated from employment on or after August 3, 2004 through August 16, 2007, are eligible to apply for trade adjustment assistance under Section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974 and are also eligible to apply for alternative trade adjustment assistance under Section 246 of the Trade Act of 1974.

Signed in Washington, DC this 12th day of October 2005.

Linda G. Poole,

Certifying Officer, Division of Trade Adjustment Assistance.
