To the extent that any State party committees representing minor political parties might be considered "small organizations," the number affected by this proposed rule is not substantial. Finally, the proposed rule would operate to relieve funding restrictions, which reduces the economic impact on any affected entities.

History

As part of the Houston Area Air Traffic System Project, a review of aircraft operations has identified a need to revise the jet route structure over the South Central United States by realigning jet airways J-29 and J-101. The FAA believes this action would allow for more effective utilization of airspace and would enhance the management of aircraft operations over the Houston terminal area. Specifically, the action would segregate departure traffic and facilitate the development of additional departure procedures from the greater Houston terminal area, thereby increasing departure capacity.

The Proposal

The FAA is proposing an amendment to Title 14 Code of Federal Regulations (14 CFR) part 71 to revise J-29 and J-101 over the South Central United States. Specifically, this action proposes to revise J-29 between the Humble, TX, VORTAC and the El Dorado, AR, VORTAC, and revise J-101 between the Lufkin, TX, VORTAC and Little Rock, AR, VORTAC. This action would allow for more effective utilization of airspace and would enhance the management of aircraft operations over the Houston terminal area.

Jet routes are published in paragraph 2004 of FAA Order 7400.9P, dated September 1, 2006 and effective September 15, 2006, which is incorporated by reference in 14 CFR 71.1. The jet routes listed in this document would be published subsequently in the Order.

The FAA has determined that this proposed regulation only involves an established body of technical regulations for which frequent and routine amendments are necessary to keep them operationally current. Therefore, this proposed regulation: (1) Is not a "significant regulatory action" under Executive Order 12866; (2) is not a "significant rule" under Department of Transportation (DOT) Regulatory Policies and Procedures (44 FR 11034; February 26, 1979); and (3) does not warrant preparation of a regulatory evaluation as the anticipated impact is so minimal. Since this is a routine matter that will only affect air traffic procedures and air navigation, it is certified that this proposed rule, when promulgated, will not have a significant economic impact on a substantial number of small entities under the criteria of the Regulatory Flexibility Act.

Environmental Review

This proposal will be subject to the appropriate environmental analysis in accordance with FAA Order 1050.1E, Environmental Impacts: Policies and Procedures, prior to any FAA final regulatory action.
