SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:Paperwork Reduction Act

The collection of information contained in these final regulations has been reviewed and approved by the Office of Management and Budget in accordance with the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995 (44 U.S.C. 3507(d)) under control number 1545-1932. The collection of information in these final regulations is in § 1.6050L-2(a) and (b). Responses to this collection of information are required to obtain a tax benefit.

An agency may not conduct or sponsor, and a person is not required to respond to, a collection of information unless the collection of information displays a valid OMB control number.

Books or records relating to a collection of information must be retained as long as their contents may become material in the administration of any internal revenue law. Generally, tax returns and return information are confidential, as required by 26 U.S.C. 6103.

Background

This document contains amendments to the Income Tax Regulations (26 CFR Part 1) relating to section 6050L of the Internal Revenue Code (Code). These regulations reflect changes to the law made by the American Jobs Creation Act of 2004, Public Law 108-357 (118 Stat. 1418). On May 23, 2005, temporary regulations (TD 9206) relating to information returns by donees with respect to qualified intellectual property contributions under section 6050L were published in the Federal Register (70 FR 29450). A notice of proposed rulemaking (REG-158138-04) cross-referencing the temporary regulations was published in the Federal Register (70 FR 29460) on the same date. No comments were received from the public in response to the notice of proposed rulemaking and no public hearing was requested or held. Accordingly, the proposed regulations are adopted as amended by this Treasury decision and the corresponding temporary regulations are removed. The final regulations generally retain the provisions of the proposed and temporary regulations but eliminate transition rules that are no longer needed and make other minor editorial changes.

Explanation of Changes

The final regulations do not include certain transition rules that were included in the temporary and proposed regulations. Specifically, the proposed and temporary regulations provide guidance for donees on making the required information return before a form is prescribed by the IRS. The IRS has since issued a new Form 8899 on which donees must report qualified donee income. Thus, these transition rules are no longer needed and are not included in the final regulations. The proposed and temporary regulations also include a transition rule that applies to donees with taxable years to which net income from the qualified intellectual property is properly allocable that end prior to or on May 23, 2005, the issuance date of the proposed and temporary regulations. Under this transition rule, the donee shall furnish the information required under section 6050L to the donor on or before August 22, 2005. This transition rule is no longer needed and is not included in the final regulations.

Special Analyses

It has been determined that this Treasury decision is not a significant regulatory action as defined in Executive Order 12866. Therefore, a regulatory assessment is not required. It has also been determined that section 553(b) of the Administrative Procedure Act (5 U.S.C. chapter 5) does not apply to these regulations. It is hereby certified that these regulations will not have a significant economic impact on a substantial number of small entities. This certification is based upon the fact that few, if any, small entities will be required to file under these regulations. Therefore, a Regulatory Flexibility Analysis under the Regulatory Flexibility Act (5 U.S.C. chapter 6) is not required. Pursuant to section 7805(f) of the Internal Revenue Code, the notice of proposed rulemaking preceding this regulation was submitted to the Chief Counsel for Advocacy of the Small Business Administration for comment on its impact on small business.

Drafting Information

The principal author of these regulations is Timothy S. Sheppard, Office of Associate Chief Counsel (Procedure and Administration).

Subsistence Management Regulations for Public Lands in Alaska, Subpart D; Seasonal Adjustments

AGENCIES: Forest Service, USDA; Fish and Wildlife Service, Interior.

ACTION: Seasonal adjustments; hunting seasons for caribou in Unit 9D and female deer in Chichagof Controlled Use Area and Unit 4.

SUMMARY: This provides notice of the Federal Subsistence Board's in-season management actions to protect caribou populations in Unit 9D and female deer populations in the Northeast Chichagof Controlled Use Area and Unit 4. These actions provide an exception to the Subsistence Management Regulations for Public Lands in Alaska, published in the Federal Register on December 27, 2007. Those regulations established seasons, harvest limits, methods, and means relating to the taking of wildlife for subsistence uses during the 2007–08 regulatory year.

DATES: The closure of the subsistence caribou hunting season in Unit 9D is effective November 15, 2007, through March 31, 2008. The closure of the subsistence female deer hunting season in the portion of Unit 4 known as the Northeast Chichagof Controlled Use Area (NECCUA) was effective November 27, 2007, through January 26, 2008, and in the entirety of Unit 4 was effective January 1 through January 31, 2008. The Unit 4 closure beginning January 1, 2008, supersedes the NECCUA-specific closure on January 1, 2008.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Background

Title VIII of the Alaska National Interest Lands Conservation Act (ANILCA) (16 U.S.C. 3111–3126) requires that the Secretary of the Interior and the Secretary of Agriculture (Secretaries) implement a joint program to grant a preference for subsistence uses of fish and wildlife resources on public lands in Alaska, unless the State of Alaska enacts and implements laws of general applicability that are consistent with ANILCA and that provide for the subsistence definition, preference, and participation specified in Sections 803, 804, and 805 of ANILCA. In December 1989, the Alaska Supreme Court ruled that the rural preference in the State subsistence statute violated the Alaska Constitution and therefore negated State compliance with ANILCA.

The Department of the Interior and the Department of Agriculture (Departments) assumed, on July 1, 1990, responsibility for implementation of title VIII of ANILCA on public lands. The Departments administer title VIII through regulations at title 50, part 100 and title 36, part 242 of the Code of Federal Regulations (CFR). Consistent with subparts A, B, and C of these regulations, as revised January 8, 1999 (64 FR 1276), the Departments established a Federal Subsistence Board to administer the Federal Subsistence Management Program. The Board's composition includes a Chair appointed by the Secretary of the Interior with concurrence of the Secretary of Agriculture; the Alaska Regional
