SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:I. Background Information

In accordance with the Privacy Act of 1974, 5 U.S.C. 552a, the Department of Homeland Security (DHS) is replacing a legacy system of records, Department of Transportation DOT/CG 642 System of Records Notice known as Joint Maritime Information Element, JMIE, Support System, JSS (67 FR 19475). DHS/USCG-001 Maritime Awareness Global Network (MAGNET) will replace the JMIS/JSS System of Records. Coast Guard Intelligence Directorate, Office of ISR (CG-26) will serve as MAGNET's executive agent.

The JMIE JSS provided storage and access of maritime information with some basic search capabilities such as vessel searches by name, hull identification and registration number and person's searches by passport or merchant mariner license number. MAGNET will enhance JMIE/JSS capabilities by adding additional data sources, media storage, access capabilities, and infrastructure to provide rapid, near real-time data to the Coast Guard and other authorized organizations that need it. DHS, Coast Guard, and MAGNET users will have the ability to share, correlate, and provide classified/unclassified data across agency lines to provide Maritime Domain Awareness critical to homeland and national security.

Taken together the information in MAGNET establishes Maritime Domain Awareness. Maritime Domain Awareness is the collection of as much information as possible about the maritime world. In other words, MAGNET establishes a full awareness of the entities (people, places, things) and their activities within the maritime industry. MAGNET collects the information described above and connects the information in order to fulfill this need.

Coast Guard Intelligence (through MAGNET) will provide awareness to the field as well as to strategic planners by aggregating data from existing sources internal and external to the Coast Guard or DHS. MAGNET will correlate and provide the medium to display information such as ship registry, current ship position, crew background, passenger lists, port history, cargo, known criminal vessels, and suspect lists. Coast Guard Intelligence (CG-2) will serve as MAGNET's executive agent and will share appropriate aggregated data to other law enforcement and intelligence agencies.

MAGNET could relate to an individual in a few ways. As one example, MAGNET may collect information on individuals associated with ports, port facilities, and maritime vessels. Individuals may be passengers, crew, owners, operators, or any other employee in support of maritime business or other activities. The primary collection vehicle for people information is through the Ships Arrival Notification System (SANS). Certain vessels, as defined in 33 CFR part 160, are required to report arrivals to U.S. ports and included is crew and passenger information. The SANS information is replicated into MAGNET. MAGNET will also contain information about passenger ships that are required to report arrivals via SANS.

The MAGNET system receives data from several systems within DHS and outside of DHS through electronic transfers of information. These systems include Ships Arrival and Notification System (SANS), National Automated Identification System (NAIS), Maritime Information for Safety and Law Enforcement and the Coast Guard and U.S. Navy Common Operational Pictures. These electronic transfers include the use of an Internet Protocol called Secure File Transfer Protocol (SFTP), delivery of data on CD-ROM or DVD-ROM, system-to-system communications via specially written Internet Protocol socket-based data streaming, database-to-database replication of data, electronic transfer of database transactional backup files, and delivery of formatted data via electronic mail.

MAGNET will provide output to the Common Operating Picture (COP) as viewed using the Global Command and Control System, Integrated Imagery and Intelligence (GCCS-I3) platform. The COP is an integrated, or "common", view of the vessels operating in water that is important to the United States government, including geographic positions of the vessels, as well as, characteristics of the vessel. The COP is integrated (or "shared") amongst users of the GCCS-I3, which is commonly used within the U.S. Coast Guard and the Department of Defense to monitor areas of operation. The output destined for the COP may be submitted to the Common Intelligence Picture (CIP) for review prior to the data being transferred to the COP. In addition, users will be able to run queries about specific vessels or tracks from a GCCS-I3 workstation and retrieve additional information from the MAGNET database. MAGNET will be able to accept input from the GCCS-I3 environment and process this data into the MAGNET database. This will allow MAGNET to accumulate position reports from the COP.

Types of information sharing that may result from the routine uses outlined in this notice include: (1) Disclosure to individuals who are working as a contractor or with a similar relationship working on behalf of DHS; (2) sharing with Congressional offices asking on behalf of an individual; (3) sharing when there appears to be a specific violation or potential violation of law, or identified threat or potential threat to national or international security, such as criminal or terrorist activities, based on individual records in this system; (4) sharing with the National Archives and Records Administration (NARA) for proper handling of government records; (5) sharing when relevant to litigation associated with the Federal government; (6) sharing to protect the individual who is the subject of the record from the harm of identity theft in the case of a data breach affecting this system; and (7) sharing with U.S. or foreign intelligence personnel in the development or execution of intelligence activities or exercises.

Elsewhere in today's Federal Register, DHS has published a notice of proposed rulemaking (NPRM) to exempt this system of records from one or more provisions of the Privacy Act because of criminal, civil, and administrative enforcement requirements pursuant to 5 U.S.C. 552a(j)(2), (k)(1), and (k)(2).

II. Privacy Act

The Privacy Act embodies fair information principles in a statutory framework governing the means by which the United States Government collects, maintains, uses, and disseminates individuals' records. The Privacy Act applies to information that is maintained in a "system of records." A "system of records" is a group of any records under the control of an agency from which information is retrieved by the name of the individual or by some identifying number, symbol, or other identifying particular assigned to the individual. In the Privacy Act, an individual is defined to encompass United States citizens and legal permanent residents. MAGNET involves the collection and creation of information that is maintained in a system of records.

The Privacy Act requires each agency to publish in the Federal Register a description denoting the type and character of each system of records that the agency maintains, and the routine uses that are contained in each system in order to make agency recordkeeping practices transparent, to notify individuals regarding the uses to which personally identifiable information is put, and to assist the individual to more easily find such files within the agency. DHS is hereby publishing a description of the system of records referred to as the Maritime Awareness Global Network (MAGNET).

In accordance with 5 U.S.C. 552a(r), a report concerning this record system has been sent to the Office of Management and Budget and to the Congress.

POLICIES AND PRACTICES FOR STORING, RETRIEVING, ACCESSING, RETAINING, AND DISPOSING OF RECORDS IN THE SYSTEM:STORAGE:

Records in this system are stored in electronic form in an automated data processing (ADP) system operated and maintained by the U.S. Coast Guard. Backups are performed daily. Copies of backups are stored at an offsite location. Personal, Sensitive but Unclassified (SBU), Unclassified, and classified data and records reside commingled with each other. Classified and non-classified information from member agencies and other sources may be merged into a classified domain within this data base.

Classified information, downloaded from the host and then extracted from the personal computer (PC) workstations and recorded on paper or electronic media, will be stored at user sites in appropriately classified storage containers or on secured electronic media.

Unclassified information will be stored in accordance with each user sites' handling procedures. Unclassified information derived from MAGNET remains U.S. Coast Guard information and is For Official Use Only. Determinations by any user to further disseminate, in any form, MAGNET derived information to other entities or agencies, foreign or domestic, must include prior authorization from the executive agent.

RETRIEVABILITY:

Records are retrieved by name (individual, company, government agency or organization), boat registration number, documented vessel name/number, Social Security Number, drivers license number, foreign ID number, passport number, VISA number, military ID number, USCG license number, resident alien number, Merchant Mariners License number, or Merchant Mariner documentation number.

SAFEGUARDS:

Information in this system is safeguarded in accordance with applicable laws, rules and policies, including the DHS Information Technology Security Program Handbook. All records are protected from unauthorized access through appropriate administrative, physical, and technical safeguards. These safeguards include restricting access to authorized personnel who have a need-to-know, using locks, and password protection identification features. DHS file areas are locked after normal duty hours and the facilities are protected from the outside by security personnel.

MAGNET falls under the security guidelines of the National Maritime Intelligence Center and has its own approved System Security Plan which provides that:

All classified MAGNET equipment, records and storage devices are located within facilities or stored in containers approved for the storage of all levels of classified information.

All statutory and regulatory requirements pertinent to classified and unclassified information have been identified in the MAGNET System Security Plan and have been implemented, and

Access to records requiring TOP SECRET level is limited strictly to personnel with TOP SECRET or higher level clearances and who have been determined to have the appropriate "need to know."

Access to records requiring SECRET level is limited strictly to personnel with SECRET or higher level clearances and who have been determined to have the appropriate "need to know".

Access to records requiring CONFIDENTIAL level is limited strictly to personnel with CONFIDENTIAL or higher level clearances and who have been determined to have the appropriate "need to know".

Access to any classified records is restricted by login and password protection. The scope of access to any records via login and password is further limited based on the official need of each individual authorized access. The U.S. Coast Guard will take precautions in accordance with OMB Circular A-130, Appendix III.

The U.S. Coast Guard will operate MAGNET in consonance with Federal security regulations, policy, procedures, standards and guidance for implementing the Automated Information Systems Security Program. Specific operating rules to ensure compliance with national policy are reflected in each site's Standard Operating Procedures. These rules include specifications that accesses to records containing information on U.S. persons are as follows:

Only authorized personnel may access such records.

MAGNET transactions that include Privacy Act and Classified data require an active pre-screened account, username and password and have a unique identifier to differentiate them from other MAGNET transactions. This allows for additional oversight and audit capabilities to ensure that the data are being handled consistent with all applicable federal laws and regulations regarding privacy and data integrity.

RETENTION AND DISPOSAL:

Dynamic information on vessel position(s) and movement(s) will be stored for not more than ten (10) years but may be reduced in detail to comply with media storage procedures and requirements. Other information such as characteristics, identification status and associate records is updated to remain current and is retained for twenty (20) years. The requirements supporting the collection and storage of data are reviewed regularly. Records will be kept accessible online for three (3) years then archived offline within MAGNET to support ongoing investigations or law enforcement activities.

Audit records, maintained to document access to information relating to specific individuals, are maintained for five (5) years or the life of the MAGNET whichever is longer. Access to audit records will only be granted to authorized personnel.
