

As shown in Table 2, if no other changes had been made to the application process and the burden was calculated taking into account only the 8.83% increase in applicants; the burden would have increased by 11.46%. This translates into a burden adjustment of 3,870,794 hours.

Now that we have accounted for the burden change based solely on the increase in applicants, we can compare that figure to the actual burden calculated for 2011–2012. The Department's final total estimated burden for 2011–2012, which is 32,239,328, hours reflects all of the distinct application components combined into one information collection. The burden baseline for 2011–2012 based solely on the increase in applicants was 37,645,141 hours. Table 3 shows the difference in the two calculations.

TABLE 3—BURDEN BASELINE COMPARED TO FINAL BURDEN

	Baseline— 2011–2012	Final—2011– 2012	Change	Percentage Change
Total Number of Applicants (Respondents)	23,611,500	23,611,500	0	0
Annual Burden	37,645,141	32,239,328	5,405,813	– 14.36

Table 3 also demonstrates the reduction in the public burden as a result of the simplification initiatives developed and implemented by the Department. The burden decrease is 14.36%, the largest in several years, and translates into a program change decrease of more than 5.4 million hours.

Lastly, Table 4, depicts the overall burden change in total burden hours from 2010–2011 to 2011–2012.

TABLE 4—COMPARISON OF 2010–2011 OVERALL BURDEN TO 2011–2012 OVERALL BURDEN

	2010–2011	Final—2011– 2012	Change	Percentage Change
Total Number of Applicants (Respondents)	21,696,675	23,611,500	1,914,825	8.83
Annual Burden	33,774,347	32,239,328	– 1,535,019	– 4.54

This results in an overall program change reduction of 1,535,019 hours when compared to 2010–2011. As stated previously, this reduction is attributed to the simplification enhancements which include the redesign of FAFSA on the Web application submission, the availability of the IRS Data Retrieval Tool, a simplified FOTW homepage, more personalized navigation, and lastly, improved and simplified functionality for users that need to correct or update their FAFSA data through FOTW Corrections.
