The March 31, 2009 Delegation of Authority Memorandum provided Regional Administrators with the authority to issue exceptions to Section 1605 of ARRA within the geographic boundaries of their respective regions and with respect to requests by individual grant recipients. Having established both a proper basis to specify the particular good required for this project, and that this manufactured good was not available from a producer in the United States, the City is hereby granted a waiver from the Buy American requirements of Section 1605(a) of Public Law 111-5 for the purchase ORION® Water Meter Monitor with Leak Detection Indicator in-home water meter monitors manufactured in Malaysia by Escatech, Inc., under license from Badger Meter, Inc., located in Milwaukee, Wisconsin as specified in the City's request of November 23, 2009. This supplementary information constitutes the detailed written justification required by Section 1605(c) for waivers based on a finding under subsection (b).

Proposed 2010 Cable Service Price Survey Questionnaire, FCC Form 333

A. Community

The information in entries A1 through A3 below has been imported from the Cable Operations & Antenna (COALS) database. Please review this data and make any necessary corrections. If you would like the COALS database updated to reflect this information, click here:

If the FCC has not granted Effective Competition status, the answer depends on whether the local government exercises its authority to regulate the price of the basic service tier.

A5. Does the local government regulate the basic tier rate in this community? (yes/no) (1/1/10)

A6. Did you operate a video service in this community on 1/1/2009? (yes/no)

A15. Name.

A16. Title.

A17. Date.

A18. Choose the system physical infrastructure that best describes your system from the drop down menu (hybrid fibercoaxial cable, fiber to the home, twisted copper pair, other—please explain).

A19. Answer "yes" to one of Questions af, or explain in g, the scenario which best describes the way local broadcast television station signals you receive from local broadcasters are sent from the cable headend to subscribers.

a. System is analog only. Analog broadcast signals are received at the headend and sent to subscribers in analog format. No headend equipment is in place to convert a digital broadcast signal to analog format. (1/1/10)

b. System is analog only. Signals are sent in analog format from headend to subscribers. Headend equipment is in place to convert a broadcaster's digital signal to analog format, in case a station is digital only. (1/1/10)

c. Separate analog/digital signals are sent on separate paths from the headend to be viewed by analog and digital customers, respectively. Digital signal can be either SD or HD, with an HD version being converted by a SD digital subscriber's set-top box to SD format. (1/1/10)

d. Separate analog/SD digital/HD digital signals are sent from the headend to be viewed by analog, SD digital, and HD digital customers, respectively. (1/1/10)

e. SD digital signals only are sent from the headend, and the set-top box can covert the signals to analog format for viewing on analog television. (1/1/10)

f. HD digital signals only are sent from the headend, and the set-top box can convert the signals to SD digital format, and then to analog format if necessary. (1/1/10)

g. If none of the above, please describe. A20. Number of local broadcast television stations transmitted over your system in this community. Count each local broadcast station only once. For example, if a local broadcast station is carried on one channel and simulcast in HD on another channel, these two channels count as one station for purpose of this question. (1/1/10)

A21. Of the local broadcast stations above, how many are carried under the FCC must-carry rules, i.e., not under retransmission consent? (Enter "0" if none.) (1/1/10)

A22. Of all the stations (must carry and retransmission consent), how many can be viewed in HD format? (Enter "0" if none.) (1/1/10)

A23. Of only the stations carried under the must-carry rules, how many can be viewed in HD format? (Enter "0" if none or if you have no must-carry stations.) (1/1/10)

B. Video Subscribers, Prices and Channels

Responses to questions B1 and B2 may be at the level of the video (or cable) system. In defining your system, use the smallest physical system area surrounding the community for which you maintain subscriber counts for video services.

B1. Number of households passed (households your system currently reaches and could provide service, regardless of whether or not these households subscribe to your service). (1/1/10)

B2. Number of video subscribers. (1/1/10, 1/1/09)

Responses to "yes/no" questions below, as well as responses for prices and channels should be provided at the community level. Number of subscribers may be in the system area.

B3. Total number of channels available in the community.* (1/1/10, 1/1/09) B4. Do you offer high-speed Internet

B4. Do you offer high-speed Interne access? (yes/no) (1/1/10, 1/1/09)

* Count local broadcast stations, PEG channels, commercial leased access channels, and any networks viewable for customers. The count should include the maximum number of channels available, including channels that would require additional equipment, such as an SD or an HD converter box. Do not count audio-only channels such as DMX music suite. Do count premium, pay-per-view or other pay channels. A Video-on-Demand channel can be counted as one channel.

Basic Service Tier (BST)

BST is the entry level video (cable) TV programming package that subscribers can purchase. Typically, BST is a "limited basic" service which consists of local broadcast channels; public, educational, and governmental access (PEG) channels; and a few national and/or other channels. In contrast to the "limited basic" tier just described, some operators only offer a BST bundled with a large number of national networks. For these operators, the bundled service should be reported as the BST. Whether limited basic or bundled, the BST should be the entry-level service that is required for all customers.

B6. Name of tier. (If there is none, enter "na" for not applicable.) (1/1/10, 1/1/09)

B7. How many subscribers take only the basic service tier (BST)? (1/1/10, 1/1/09)

B8. Monthly price: Basic cable service tier (BST) (1/1/10, 1/1/09)

B9. Number of channels on the BST.* (1/1/10, 1/1/09)

B10. Is equipment needed to view the channels on the BST? (yes/no) (1/1/10, 1/1/09)

B11. What is the monthly fee to lease the most commonly-used equipment needed to view the channels on the BST? (1/1/10, 1/1/09)

B12. Identify the features that are included with this equipment: VOD, DVR, HD, other. (1/1/10, 1/1/09)

* Count local broadcast stations, PEG channels, commercial leased access channels, and any networks viewable for customers of the BST. The count should include the maximum number of channels available when purchasing the BST only, including channels that would require additional equipment, such as an SD or an HD converter box. Do not count audio-only channels such as DMX music suite. Do not count premium, pay-per-view or other pay channels unless they are viewed in the package at no additional charge. A Video-on-Demand channel that offers content at no additional charge can be counted as one channel.

Expanded Basic Service Package

In most cases, expanded basic service includes the limited basic BST channels plus a large number of national networks. However, if you answered "no" to Question B5 (you do not offer a limited basic tier) then BST and expanded basic service are the same, and Questions B13-B19 below are automatically filled.

Check box if this package was not offered last vear.

B13. Name of package. (If there is none, enter "na" for not applicable.) (1/1/10, 1/1/09)

B14. Number of subscribers taking this package. (1/1/10, 1/1/09)

Do not count audio-only channels such as DMX music suite. Do not count premium, pay-per-view or other pay channels unless they are viewed in the package at no additional charge. A Video-on-Demand channel that offers content at no additional charge can be counted as one
