

should determine whether Apple's evidence of secondary considerations requires a finding of nonobviousness with respect to the '607 patent in light of the Commission's determination, as affirmed by the Federal Circuit, that SmartSkin in combination with Rekimoto '033 discloses all limitations of claim 10. In deciding the issue of obviousness, the ALJ should also determine whether there is a nexus between Apple's evidence of secondary considerations and the invention recited in claim 10 of the '607 patent. The Commission also remands the issue of domestic industry to the ALJ. Specifically, the ALJ should determine whether Apple's iPhone 4 practices all of the limitations of claim 10 of the '607 patent.

With respect to the '828 patent, the Commission remands the issue of infringement. Specifically, the ALJ should determine whether Motorola's accused products infringe the asserted claims of the '828 patent under the Federal Circuit's construction of the claim limitation "mathematically fit[ting] an ellipse." The Commission further remands the issue of anticipation. Specifically, the ALJ should determine whether U.S. Patent No. 5,825,352 to Bisset anticipates claims 1 and 10 of the '828 patent under the Federal Circuit's construction of the claim limitation "mathematically fit[ting] an ellipse."

The authority for the Commission's determination is contained in section 337 of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended (19 U.S.C. 1337), and in Part 210 of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure (19 CFR part 210).

By order of the Commission.

Issued: May 6, 2014.

Lisa R. Barton,

Secretary to the Commission.

Abstract: The Violence Against Women Reauthorization Act of 2013 (VAWA 2013) was signed into law on March 7, 2013. Section 904 of VAWA 2013 recognizes the inherent power of "participating tribes" to exercise special domestic violence criminal jurisdiction over certain defendants, regardless of their Indian or non-Indian status, who commit acts of domestic violence or dating violence or violate certain protection orders in Indian country. Section 904 also specifies the rights that a participating tribe must provide to defendants in special domestic violence criminal jurisdiction cases. Section 908(b)(1) provides that tribes generally cannot exercise the special jurisdiction until March 7, 2015, but Section 908(b)(2) establishes a pilot project that authorizes the Attorney General, in the exercise of his discretion, to grant a tribe's request to be designed as a "participating tribe" on an accelerated basis and to commence exercising the special jurisdiction on a date (prior to March 7, 2015) set by the Attorney General, after coordinating with the Secretary of the Interior, consulting with affected tribes, and concluding that the tribe's criminal justice system has adequate safeguards in place to protect defendants' rights, consistent with Section 204 of the Indian Civil Rights Act, as amended, 25 U.S.C. 1304. The Department of Justice has published a notice seeking comments on procedures for an Indian tribe to request designation as a "participating tribe" on an accelerated basis), and for the Attorney General to act on such requests, 78 FR 35961 (June 14, 2013). Pursuant to the notice, the Attorney General has delegated to the Associate Attorney General the authority to decide whether to grant the request of a tribe to be designated as a "participating tribe" prior to March 7, 2015. The purpose of the collection is to provide information from the requesting tribe sufficient for the Associate Attorney General to make that decision.

(5) An estimate of the total number of respondents and the amount of time estimated for an average respondent to respond: Fewer than 40 respondents; average of 16 hours.

(6) An estimate of the total public burden (in hours) associated with the collection: There are an estimated 640 total burden hours associated with this collection.
