SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION

[Release No. 34-72826; File No. SR-OPRA-2014-06]

Options Price Reporting Authority; Notice of Filing and Immediate Effectiveness of Proposed Amendment to the Plan for Reporting of Consolidated Options Last Sale Reports and Quotation Information To Amend OPRA's Fee Schedule

August 12, 2014.

Pursuant to Section 11A of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 ("Act")¹ and Rule 608 thereunder,² notice is hereby given that on July 2, 2014, the Options Price Reporting Authority ("OPRA") submitted to the Securities and Exchange Commission ("Commission") an amendment to the Plan for Reporting of Consolidated Options Last Sale Reports and Quotation Information ("OPRA Plan").³ The amendment proposes to eliminate a category of fees for access to OPRA data during periods of after-hours operations and amend certain fees for calendar year 2015. The Commission is publishing this notice to solicit comments from interested persons on the proposed OPRA Plan amendment.

I. Description and Purpose of the Plan Amendment

The purpose of the proposed amendment is to amend the OPRA Fee Schedule in two respects: first, to eliminate fees specifically for access to data that OPRA disseminates as a result of trading on the markets of one or more

³ The OPRA Plan is a national market system plan approved by the Commission pursuant to Section 11A of the Act and Rule 608 thereunder (formerly Rule 11Aa3-2). See Securities Exchange Act Release No. 17638 (March 18, 1981), 22 S.E.C. Docket 484 (March 31, 1981). The full text of the OPRA Plan is available at <http://www.opradata.com>. The OPRA Plan provides for the collection and dissemination of last sale and quotation information on options that are traded on the participant exchanges. The twelve participants to the OPRA Plan are BATS Exchange, Inc., BOX Options Exchange, LLC, Chicago Board Options Exchange, Incorporated, C2 Options Exchange, Incorporated, International Securities Exchange, LLC, Miami International Securities Exchange, LLC, NASDAQ OMX BX, Inc., NASDAQ OMX PHLX LLC, NASDAQ Stock Market LLC, NYSE MKT LLC, NYSE Arca, Inc., and the Topaz Exchange, LLC (d/b/a ISE Gemini).

OPRA member exchanges during hours outside of OPRA's regular hours of operations (these hours are sometimes referred to in this filing as "after-hours"); and, second, to establish OPRA's Professional Subscriber Device-Based Fee for calendar year 2015 and make conforming changes in OPRA's Enterprise Rate Professional Subscriber Fee.

As described in a recent filing—File No. OPRA–2014–04—one of OPRA's member exchanges has indicated that it is planning to initiate trading during hours outside of OPRA's regular hours of operations and to request OPRA to operate during the after-hours period when its market is open for trading. No exchange has previously made such a request, and as a result OPRA currently does not operate outside of its regular hours of operations.

OPRA proposed in File No. OPRA–2014–04 to establish fees specifically for receipt of OPRA information disseminated during after-hours operations. The fees established in that filing were based on the premise that OPRA Vendors and Professional Subscribers receiving only regular-hours OPRA data would continue to pay fees only for that data, that OPRA Vendors and Professional Subscribers receiving only after-hours OPRA data would pay fees only for that data, and that OPRA Vendors and Professional Subscribers receiving both regular-hours OPRA data and after-hours OPRA data would pay fees for both data streams. In particular, File No. OPRA–2014–04 provided for an after-hours Professional Subscriber Device-Based Fee of $5.00 per month, with that fee applicable only to devices⁴ that are entitled for after-hours data.

Several OPRA Vendors and Professional Subscribers have subsequently advised OPRA that it is impractical for them to administer separate entitlements and fees for regular-hours OPRA data and after-hours OPRA data, and that if the Fee Schedule proposed in File No. OPRA–2014–04 were to be implemented they would need to apply the fees for both data streams to all of their data distribution activities. This would mean that the after-hours Professional Subscriber Device-Based Fee would in effect be a $5.00 per month increase for all devices, and that the other fees established in File No. OPRA–2014–04 for after-hours OPRA data would also be applicable to all OPRA data recipients.

OPRA is therefore revising its Fee Schedule to eliminate the fees specifically for access to after-hours OPRA data, and is also revising its Professional Subscriber Device-Based Fee to specify that the fee during year 2015 will be $28.50 per month, an increase of $1.50 from the fee during 2014. For the years 2008–2014, OPRA has implemented incremental $1.00 per month increases in its Professional Subscriber Device-Based Fee.⁵ In effect, for 2015 OPRA is implementing the same $1.00 per month increase that it has implemented in past years plus an additional $0.50 per month as a result of dissemination of the after-hours data. OPRA is also proposing to make conforming changes in its Enterprise Rate for 2015 so that it continues in 2015 to be the monthly Professional Subscriber Device-Based Fee times the number of a Professional Subscriber's U.S.-based registered representatives, subject to a minimum rate that is also determined by reference to the monthly Professional Subscriber Device-Based Fee.

The proposed increases in the Professional Subscriber Device-Based Fee and in the Enterprise Rate are intended to generate revenues for OPRA and its member exchanges that are needed to cover actual and anticipated increases in the costs of collecting, consolidating, processing and disseminating options market information and assuring the reliability and integrity of that information, as well as increases in OPRA's administrative costs. These costs include the enhancements to the OPRA system and related exchange systems that are needed in order to enable OPRA and its participant exchanges to handle the continually increasing volume of market information as a result of the continuing expansion of listed options trading, to accommodate the dissemination of after-hours data and to provide a greater degree of redundancy and security in the OPRA system. Assuming that the number of fee-liable devices and registered persons remains the same,⁶ the effect of the increases in these fees would be to increase revenues derived from these fees by approximately 5.6% in the year 2015.

The text of the proposed amendment to the OPRA Plan is available at OPRA, the Commission's Public Reference Room, <http://opradata.com>, and on the Commission's Web site at www.sec.gov.

II. Implementation of the OPRA Plan Amendment

Pursuant to paragraph (b)(3)(i) of Rule 608 of Regulation NMS under the Act, OPRA designated this amendment as establishing or changing fees or other charges collected on behalf of all of the OPRA participant exchanges in connection with access to or use of OPRA facilities. OPRA proposes to put the elimination of the fees specifically for access to after-hours OPRA data into effect immediately,⁷ and proposes to put the change in the Professional Subscriber Device-Based Fee into effect as of January 1, 2015. Implementation of the change in this fee on January 1 is consistent with OPRA's prior practice with respect to changes in its Professional Subscriber Device-Based Fee, and will provide ample opportunity to give persons subject to these fees advance notice of the change.

The Commission may summarily abrogate the amendment within sixty days of its filing and require refiling and approval of the amendment by Commission order pursuant to Rule 608(b)(2) under the Act⁸ if it appears to the Commission that such action is necessary or appropriate in the public interest, for the protection of investors, or the maintenance of fair and orderly markets, to remove impediments to, and perfect the mechanisms of, a national market system, or otherwise in furtherance of the purposes of the Act.

III. Solicitation of Comments

Interested persons are invited to submit written data, views, and arguments concerning the foregoing, including whether the proposed OPRA Plan amendment is consistent with the ⁶ This assumption may be too optimistic, unless the introduction of after-hours trading results in the dissemination of OPRA data to additional devices and registered persons. Over the past ten years, the number of devices with access to OPRA data has decreased by approximately 32%.

⁷ OPRA stated in File No. OPRA–2014–04 that it would put the revised Fee Schedule into effect as of the first day of a calendar month after one or more of OPRA's member exchanges had initiated after-hours trading. Since no OPRA member exchange is planning to provide after-hours trading before October 2014, OPRA has not charged, and will not be charging, fees on the basis of the revised Fee Schedule described in File No. OPRA–2014–04.

⁴ OPRA permits the counting of "User IDs" as a surrogate for counting "devices" for purposes of the Professional Subscriber Device-based Fees. See footnote 2 in the OPRA Fee Schedule and OPRA's "Policies with respect to Device-based Fees," which are available on the OPRA Web site under the "Policies" tab.

⁵ OPRA's practice in the recent past has been to establish the Professional Subscriber Device-Based Fee for several years at a time. Most recently, OPRA established the Professional Subscriber Device-Based Fee at $24.00 per month for the year 2011, $25.00 per month for the year 2012, $26.00 per month for the year 2013 and $27.00 per month for the year 2014. See File No. OPRA–2010–03, Release No. 34–63273 (November 8, 2010). In this filing, OPRA is establishing the Professional Subscriber Device-Based Fee only for the year 2015, since the introduction of after-hours trading makes the forecasting of future OPRA revenues particularly uncertain at this time.

Options Price Reporting Authority; Notice of Filing of Proposed Amendment to the Plan for Reporting of Consolidated Options Last Sale Reports and Quotation Information To Amend Sections 5.4 and 7.1 of the OPRA Plan

August 12, 2014.

Pursuant to Section 11A of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 ("Act")¹ and Rule 608 thereunder,² notice is hereby given that on October 21, 2013, the Options Price Reporting Authority, LLC ("OPRA") submitted to the Securities and Exchange Commission ("Commission") an amendment to the Plan for Reporting of Consolidated Options Last Sale Reports and Quotation Information ("OPRA Plan").³ The proposed amendment would modify Sections 5.4 and 7.1 of the OPRA Plan as they pertain to operations of OPRA outside of its regular hours of operations. The Commission is publishing this notice to solicit comments from interested persons on the proposed OPRA Plan amendment.

I. Description and Purpose of the Plan Amendment

The purpose of the proposed amendment is to amend the OPRA Plan so that it provides for the aggregation of costs for operations of OPRA outside of its regular hours of operations ("after-hours operations") with costs for operations of OPRA during its regular hours of operations ("regular-hours operations") and states expressly that OPRA may establish separate fees for access to OPRA data during periods of after-hours operations.

³ The OPRA Plan is a national market system plan approved by the Commission pursuant to Section 11A of the Act and Rule 608 thereunder (formerly Rule 11Aa3-2). See Securities Exchange Act Release No. 17638 (March 18, 1981), 22 S.E.C. Docket 484 (March 31, 1981). The full text of the OPRA Plan is available at <http://www.opradata.com>. The OPRA Plan provides for the collection and dissemination of last sale and quotation information on options that are traded on the participant exchanges. The twelve participants to the OPRA Plan are BATS Exchange, Inc., BOX Options Exchange, LLC, Chicago Board Options Exchange, Incorporated, C2 Options Exchange, Incorporated, International Securities Exchange, LLC, Miami International Securities Exchange, LLC, NASDAQ OMX BX, Inc., NASDAQ OMX PHLX LLC, NASDAQ Stock Market LLC, NYSE MKT LLC, NYSE Arca, Inc., and the Topaz Exchange, LLC (d/b/a ISE Gemini).

One of OPRA's member exchanges has indicated that it is planning to initiate after-hours trading and to request OPRA to operate during the after-hours period when its market is open for trading.⁴ No exchange has previously made such a request, and as a result OPRA currently does not operate outside of its regular hours of operations.

Currently, the OPRA Plan provides that the costs of OPRA's after-hour operations are to be allocated separately from the costs of OPRA's regular-hour operations and in a somewhat different manner. In essence, the Plan currently provides that the costs of OPRA's regular-hour operations below a specified ceiling⁵ and OPRA's revenues from regular-hour operations are both to be allocated among the OPRA member exchanges on the basis of the relative number of compared trades in options contracts traded on each of the OPRA member exchanges.⁶

The current provisions of the Plan state that, if the OPRA System operates outside of OPRA's regular hours, any costs attributable to such operation will be allocated to the exchange or exchanges that are actually operating during the after-hours period. The Plan does not make any special provision for the allocation of revenues resulting from fees for access to OPRA data generated in the course of after-hours operations, and the Plan therefore provides that

⁶ Section 7.1 of the Plan provides for three "accounting centers": The foreign currency option or "FCO" accounting center, the index option accounting center and the "basic" accounting center—the accounting center for all options other than foreign currency and index options. Section 7.1 describes the allocation of revenues and expenses associated with OPRA's regular-hour operations first among these three accounting centers and then within each of these accounting centers. OPRA does not currently incur costs specifically attributable to either the FCO accounting center or the index option accounting center, and does not allocate revenues to either of these accounting centers. Both the allocation of costs among the accounting centers and the allocation of costs within each accounting center are therefore on the basis of the relative number of compared trades in options contracts traded on each of the OPRA member exchanges. See, e.g., Section 7.1(a)(iii)(B) of the Plan.
