Annual Update of Filing Fees

(Issued March 4, 2015)

The Federal Energy Regulatory Commission (Commission) is issuing this notice to update filing fees that the Commission assesses for specific services and benefits provided to identifiable beneficiaries. Pursuant to 18 CFR 381.104, the Commission is establishing updated fees on the basis of the Commission's Fiscal Year 2014 costs. The adjusted fees announced in this notice are effective April 13, 2015. The Commission has determined, with the concurrence of the Administrator of the Office of Information and Regulatory Affairs of the Office of Management and Budget, that this final rule is not a major rule within the meaning of section 251 of Subtitle E of Small Business Regulatory Enforcement Fairness Act, 5 U.S.C. 804(2). The Commission is submitting this final rule to both houses of the United States Congress and to the Comptroller General of the United States.

[Docket No. RM15–15–000; Order No. 806]

Disruptive Conduct at Commission Open Meetings

AGENCY: Federal Energy Regulatory Commission.

ACTION: Final rule.

SUMMARY: The Commission is amending the CFR regulations which specify the roles available to the public at the Commission’s open meetings. This rule utilizes language from the Federal Communication Commission’s (FCC) open meeting regulation, and the Rural Telephone Bank’s open meeting regulation, to clarify that the term “observe” does not include disruptive behavior. The rule also uses language from the FCC’s open meeting regulation to clarify that communications made or presented by unscheduled presenters will not be considered by the Commission. Finally, the rule uses language similar to the Consumer Product Safety Commission’s open meeting regulation, to clarify that members of the public may use electronic audio and visual equipment to record open meetings in a non-disruptive manner. The rule imposes no new obligations on the public.

DATES: This rule will become effective April 13, 2015.

I. Introduction

1. By this final rule, the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission (Commission) is amending 18 CFR 375.203(b), which specifies the roles available to the public at the Commission’s open meetings. This rule utilizes language from the Federal Communication Commission’s (FCC) open meeting regulation, 47 CFR 0.602, and the Rural Telephone Bank’s open meeting regulation, 7 CFR 1600.3, to clarify that the term “observe” does not include disruptive behavior. The rule also utilizes language from the FCC’s open meeting regulation to clarify that communications made or presented by unscheduled presenters will not be considered by the Commission. Finally, the rule uses language similar to the Consumer Product Safety Commission’s open meeting regulation, 16 CFR 1013.4, to clarify that members of the public may record open meetings in a non-disruptive manner. The rule imposes no new obligations on the public.

II. Background

2. The Commission has recently experienced multiple disruptions to its open meetings from individual protesters. The disruptions have consisted of members of the public making unscheduled statements, standing up repeatedly, walking about the room, and displaying signs.

3. The Commission’s regulations outline the roles available to the public at the Commission’s open meetings. Specifically, 18 CFR 375.203(b) states that “[m]embers of the public are invited to listen and observe at open meetings.”

4. Like the Commission, other Federal agencies limit the conduct of the public at open meetings.¹ Several other agencies have regulations on open meetings that expressly address

¹ See, e.g., 12 CFR 311.2, 10 CFR 9.103, and 16 CFR 4.15 (Regulations of the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation, Nuclear Regulatory Commission, and Federal Trade Commission limiting the participation of the public to observing open meetings).
