SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: Small Business Administration SBA Form 912 is used to collect information needed to make character determinations with respect to applicants for monetary loan assistance or applicants for participation in SBA programs. The information collected is used as the basis for conducting name checks at national Federal Bureau of Investigations (FBI) and local levels.

SBA is requesting that applicants include their email contact information when listing their (or their firm's) name and address. SBA is also requesting additional information pertaining to applicants' citizenship or Lawful Permanent Resident status. SBA made several minor changes to enhance the readability and clarity of the form, including renumbering Question 1, revising the wording of Questions 2 and 9, moving the burden information from Page 1 to Page 2, and explicitly instructing applicants that they "must" fully complete SBA Form 912, including furnishing details on a separate sheet for any "Yes" responses to Questions 7, 8, or 9.
