SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: On August 24, 2017, the Board invited public comment on a proposal that would extend for three years the FR Y-15 and make certain revisions to the report (FR Y-15 proposal). The comment period for the FR Y-15 proposal was previously scheduled to end on October 23, 2017.

The Board has received feedback that additional time may be required for affected banking organizations to analyze the impact of, and to provide comments on, the FR Y-15 changes being proposed.

In response to the feedback, this notice hereby reopens the public comment period for the FR Y-15 proposal by 30 days, with comments due November 23, 2017, to provide additional time for comment.

This notice also amends the proposed implementation date of the FR Y-15 proposal such that the proposed changes would be effective for reports reflecting the March 31, 2018, as-of date. This revision would provide respondents with an additional 90 days to prepare their systems to reflect any changes to the FR Y-15 that the Board may adopt after reviewing the comments received.
