Synopsis

On December 13, 2018, the Media Bureau released a PN (December PN) seeking comment on the proposal that was submitted by the National Association of Broadcasters (NAB) and NCTA—The Internet and Television Association (NCTA) on December 7, 2018 in docket number 17–317 (Joint Proposal, available online at <https://ecfsapi.fcc.gov/file/1207161565486/Ex%20Parte%20Carriage%20Elections%20Notice%20%20NCTA-NAB%2012-7-18.pdf>).¹ The Joint Proposal responds to the Electronic Delivery of MVPD Subscriber Notification Rules Notice of Proposed Rulemaking (NPRM) that sought comment, in part, on updating the requirement that broadcast television stations send carriage election notices via certified mail. In response to the NPRM, several parties proposed ways to reduce the burden and costs involved in the carriage election process.

Currently, sections 76.64(h) and 76.66(d) of our rules direct each television broadcast station to provide notice every three years, via certified mail, to each cable system or Direct Broadcast Satellite carrier serving its market regarding whether it is electing to demand carriage (“must carry” or “mandatory carriage”), or to withhold carriage pending negotiation (“retransmission consent”). The NPRM sought comment on revising this requirement to permit broadcast stations to use alternative means of notice.

Under the Joint Proposal, a commercial broadcast TV station would be required to send notice of its must carry or retransmission consent election to a cable operator only if the station changed its election status from its previous election. In those cases, the broadcaster would send its notice to an email address listed in the cable operator's online public file or in the FCC's Cable Operations and Licensing System (COALS) database, for cable operators that do not have an online public file.

NAB and NCTA claim that this approach “would alleviate the burdens associated with the current notification process and meet the needs of both broadcasters and cable operators.”

The comment and reply deadlines established by the December PN, as well as the planned publication of that PN, fell during a lapse in funding. By operation of the General Counsel's January 28, 2019 Public Notice, the deadlines for both would have been extended to the same day—January 30, 2019.² In light of these unique circumstances, the Media Bureau, on its own motion, further extends the deadlines. We will publish this PN in the Federal Register and announce the final comment dates once they are established.

We invite the public to comment on the recommended approach in the Joint Proposal. In particular, we seek comment on whether, and to what extent, the Commission should adopt these recommendations or any alternative modifications to the carriage election rules. The Commission will consider the Joint Proposal and the comments filed in response to this PN together with the comments and ex partes previously filed in response to the NPRM in determining what action to take in this proceeding.

Ex Parte Rules.—Permit-But-Disclose. The proceeding shall be treated as a
